Additional CKLA Goals

| CKLA Goal(s) | Change some story events and provide a different story ending (orally or in writing) |

These goals are addressed in all lessons in this domain. Rather than repeat these goals as lesson objectives throughout the domain, they are designated here as frequently occurring goals.

Skills marked with an asterisk () in Language Standards 1–3, are particularly likely to require continued attention in higher grades as they are applied to increasingly sophisticated writing and speaking.*
The content focus of Unit 6 is Norse mythology. These Norse myths, which have been passed down through many generations, complement the Listening & Learning read-alouds, which present factual information about the Vikings. Norse gods, goddesses, dwarves, and giants occupied nine worlds. The genealogy of these creatures is rather complex and we have only skimmed the surface of this vast body of literature. If you are interested in learning more, the following website was developed and is maintained by a teacher in Norway: http://www.norse-mythology.com.

During this unit’s spelling exercises, students will review words with spelling patterns of /k/ spelled ‘c’, ‘k’, ‘ck’, ‘ch’, and ‘cc’ and spelling patterns of /s/ spelled ‘s’, ‘c’, ‘ss’, ‘ce’, ‘se’, ‘st’, and ‘sc’. Students should be familiar with most of these spelling alternatives as they were taught in Grade 2. Two Challenge Words have been assigned each week. Content Words will continue. Each week, students will have the option of trying to spell a content-related word on the weekly spelling assessment. In this unit, the Content Word will follow the spelling pattern for the week.

In grammar, students will continue their study of conjunctions as a part of speech. Students will review the correct usage of the conjunction because, which is used to mean “for this reason” and signals the answer to a “why” question. It signals the cause of something. Students will practice identifying and creating compound sentences using this conjunction.

During the morphology portion of the lessons, students will work with the suffixes –ive and –ly. Students will continue to learn how suffixes change the meaning of root words and how suffixes added to a word can change the part of speech of that word. Students will have opportunities to apply their new knowledge of the changed meanings and parts of speech during workbook practice.

Mid-Year Student Performance Task Assessments

In this unit, a Mid-Year Assessment is provided during the first week of whole group Skills instructional time. There are four main components of the assessment: a written assessment of silent reading comprehension, a written assessment of morphology, a written assessment of grammar, and the oral reading of words in isolation, the last of which is administered one-on-one with students.

The written assessment of silent reading comprehension is meant to be completed over the course of one or two 30-minute blocks of time. This should approximate the extended end-of-year assessments that Grade 3 students may take. There are three passages for students to read and questions after each passage for students to answer.

Students should remain seated and be encouraged to work diligently throughout the time allotted for the assessment. You should circulate throughout the room, giving encouragement to students. You should not, however, provide any assistance in reading or explaining any part. of the assessment. If students ask for help, simply say in a kind and encouraging voice, “I just want you to do your very best. If you can’t figure something out, then come back to it later.”

Similarly, the morphology and grammar assessments are meant to be completed in one 30-minute sitting each. Students should again be encouraged to do their very best work and remain seated while all classmates finish.

The oral portion of the assessment evaluates skills in reading words in isolation. Students will be asked to read words one-on-one as you mark their pronunciation on a sheet that lists the phonemes and syllabication of each word. Explicit directions for the administration of this test are included in this Teacher Guide.

In Lessons 2–4, we have supplied independent practice worksheets for students to complete as you work one-on-one to evaluate each student in your classroom individually using the Word Reading in Isolation Assessment. The use of these worksheets at any point during the week is at your discretion.

During the second week of this unit, 30 minutes a day have been designated for remediation and enrichment of the skills taught during the first half of the school year. Using the results of the Mid-Year Assessment and the analysis charts provided in this Teacher Guide, you will have a clear picture of the skills you need to reteach. Follow the guidelines found on the Silent Reading Assessment Remediation Guide, the Grammar Remediation Guide, and the Morphology Remediation Guide to carefully map out a plan for instruction during the week. You will find worksheets in the Pausing Point to match the skills assessed on the Mid-Year Assessment. For guidance in reteaching specific skills, please refer to unit and lesson numbers found in the Pausing Point that show where the skills were first taught. Students who do not need remediation on specific skills may use the time during this week to read from More Classic Tales and complete accompanying worksheets and/or to reread selections from any previously read Reader. They may also practice writing about any of these chapters using the writing prompts found in the Teacher Resources section at the back of this Teacher Guide and at the end of the Skills Workbook.
Spelling

Students will review sound-spelling patterns throughout the year. You will notice that there are no follow-up classroom spelling activities in this unit. This is due to less instructional time because of the Mid-Year Assessment in the first week of the unit and the time set aside for remediation and enrichment during the second week.

On the weekly spelling assessment, students will be asked to write the spelling words, two Challenge Words, and two dictated sentences. Students will have the option of writing the Content Word. You should explicitly address your expectations with regard to the use of appropriate capitalization and punctuation when students write each dictated sentence.

As in previous units, students will continue to correct their own spelling assessment. Some teachers find it helpful to have students write the spelling assessment with a pen. After the assessment, students turn the pen back in and use a pencil for corrections. In this way, teachers can more clearly see exactly what errors students are making. Correcting their own errors will heighten students’ awareness of specific spelling errors and will solidify their understanding of correct spelling. A classroom chart is provided for you at the end of each week so that you may analyze mistakes that students are making. The results of this chart, paired with other classroom observations, may help you identify students who would benefit from targeted remedial instruction in certain letter-sound correspondences, using the Assessment and Remediation Guide.

Grammar

Grammar continues with a review and expansion of skills introduced in second grade and in previous units in Grade 3. Students will review creating compound sentences using the conjunction because. Students will also recognize that they can answer comprehension questions using the conjunction because.

Students will apply their new knowledge of conjunctions, recognizing that the concept of cause and effect can be signaled by the conjunction because.
Morphology

Throughout Grade 3, students will study word parts, such as prefixes, suffixes, and root words, during the morphology portion of the lessons. In this unit, students will study the suffixes –ive and –ly. Students learned about the suffix –ly in Unit 5 both in relation to the suffix –ous and in Grammar. Students will be able to apply their knowledge of the suffix –ly in this unit. You will notice that morphology is only being taught in one 25-minute block per week. Students have done sufficient word work to be able to apply what they have learned as they encounter unfamiliar words in text and content.

Reader: Gods, Giants, and Dwarves

The Reader for Unit 6, Gods, Giants, and Dwarves, consists of selections of Norse myths. Students will read about Norse gods, giants, and dwarves and how they interact with each other. It is important that you remind students about the features of fictional narrative text, such as characters, setting, plot, and dialogue, as students will encounter these features as they read these myths.

As you read each chapter of Gods, Giants, and Dwarves, you will fill in a fiction chart with students. This will assist students in keeping track of the characters, settings, and plots in the Reader as well as provide a review of some features of fiction. You will notice recommended discussion questions in each lesson to ask students as you are filling in the chart. You may want to point to the chart as key features emerge in discussions. In each lesson, the columns will show suggested answers. Students’ responses may differ.

We encourage you to create a chart much like this one for display in your classroom:

<table>

</tr>
</tbody>
Students will take home text copies of the chapters throughout the unit. Encouraging students to read a text directly related to this domain-based unit will provide content and vocabulary reinforcement.

In this unit, students will focus on three academic vocabulary words: devise, formulate, and appropriate. By academic vocabulary, we mean words that support reading comprehension and may appear across a variety of materials, in language arts and in content areas. These words can be found in textbooks, assignment directions, and assessments. Understanding academic vocabulary may contribute to improved performance on assignments and assessments, as these words often appear in directions to students. These words may appear on end-of-year assessments that third graders may take. Where applicable, we use the words throughout the unit, not just as they might refer to reading selections but also with regard to spelling, grammar, morphology, and comprehension. They may also appear in directions, assessments, spelling lists, and discussion questions, among other places.

- To devise means to think of a way to create something.
- We define formulate as to devise an idea and then state it in a clear way.
- Appropriate means suitable, fitting, or right.

We encourage you to define these words for students and use all three of these words throughout the school day so that students may experience multiple uses of them.

We recommend that teachers study the core content objectives related to the Vikings and Norse culture in the Tell It Again! Read-Aloud Anthology for this domain-based unit. The selections that students will read in Gods, Giants, and Dwarves will reinforce and solidify the overall acquisition of knowledge related to this domain. You will find that many materials introduced in the Listening & Learning Strand, such as the image cards and posters, will also be good resources as students read the various chapters of this reader.

Fluency Packet

A fluency packet consisting of poetry, folklore, and fables is provided online at http://www.coreknowledge.org/G3-FP. These additional text selections provide opportunities for students to practice reading with fluency and expression (prosody). The selections can be used in any order. At the beginning of the week, the teacher should make sufficient copies of the week’s selection for each student. The teacher should take time to read the selection aloud to all students. Then, students take the selection home to practice reading aloud throughout the week. The expectation for all students should be that they are prepared to read the selection fluently and with prosody by Friday. At the end of the week, the teacher should select a few students to individually read the selection aloud. Teachers may also wish to have a few students choral read the selection. Be sure to provide opportunities for different students to read aloud each week.

You will want to establish audience guidelines for all students. These are some ideas but you will want to make guidelines that work for your students:

- Listen respectfully to your classmates.
- Listen without talking.
- Ask students to give their classmate(s) a round of applause and sincere compliments on their reading. Model compliments by saying, “I liked it when you...”

Vocabulary Cards

Vocabulary Cards will be used again to reinforce the vocabulary listed in the glossary for Gods, Giants, and Dwarves. We highly encourage you to display either side of the Vocabulary Cards in your classroom, in addition to hanging the corresponding image from the chapter above the list of Vocabulary Cards.

Skills Workbook

The Skills Workbook contains worksheets that accompany the lessons from the Teacher Guide. Each worksheet is identified by its lesson number and where it is intended to be used. For example, if there are two worksheets for Lesson 8, the first will be numbered 8.1 and the second 8.2. The Skills Workbook is a student component, which means each student should have a Skills Workbook.

A copy of the glossary is included at the end of the Workbook, so students can take it home to use when reading text copies of the chapters of the Reader.
Student Performance Task Assessments

Due to the Mid-Year Assessment, there is no Unit Assessment for Unit 6. However, there are many opportunities for informal assessment throughout each Skills unit. Careful analysis of student performance on the weekly spelling assessments may provide insight into specific gaps in student code knowledge. In addition, you may choose to assign a given workbook page for individual, independent completion to use as an assessment. It may be helpful to use the Tens Conversion Chart and the Tens Recording Chart found in the Teacher Resources section at the back of this Teacher Guide to collect and analyze all assessment data.

Note: Students’ mastery of the domain content, the Viking Age, is assessed using the Listening & Learning Domain Assessments.

Pausing Point

Resources are provided in the Pausing Point for additional practice on the specific grammar and morphology skills taught in this unit. Teachers should select exercises and worksheets based on student performance on the Mid-Year Assessment.

We have provided additional worksheets in grammar and morphology to aid you in remediating students in areas of weakness. We recommend strongly that you do not merely rely on the worksheets to reteach the concepts but rather take time to review with students those skills not mastered. We have included the unit and lesson numbers where the skills were first taught in Grade 3 for your convenience. Please look back at prior Teacher Guides for reminders of how lessons were taught.

In this unit, an optional graphic organizer is available for students to complete. The Comic Book Organizer sequences the events in each myth in an artistic form. The pages for the Comic Book Organizer are to be used at your discretion. As students read or reread the chapters in this unit, you may direct and assist them in adding drawings to the pages of this organizer using the directions in the Pausing Point. This organizer is included as a way to help students understand the characters, settings, plots, and overall sequence of events in the Norse myths. After completing all the pages of the Comic Book Organizer, you may direct students to tear these pages out, draw a cover for the comic book, and assemble the pages. You may choose to use this organizer as an extension activity during the day or as homework. Please note that some teachers prefer not to assign homework during an assessment week; this is left to your discretion.
Teacher Resources

At the back of this Teacher’s Guide, you will find a section titled “Teacher Resources.” In this section, we have included assorted forms and charts that may be useful.

Assessment and Remediation Guide

A separate publication, the Assessment and Remediation Guide, provides further guidance in assessing, analyzing, and remediating specific skills. This guide can be found online at http://www.coreknowledge.org/AR-G3. Refer to this URL for additional resources, mini-lessons, and activities to assist students who experience difficulty with the skills presented in this unit.
Lesson 1

Objectives

The following language arts objectives are addressed in this lesson. Objectives aligning with the Common Core State Standards are noted with the corresponding standard in parentheses. Refer to the Alignment Chart for additional standards addressed in all lessons in this unit.

- ✔ Independently read grade-appropriate irregularly spelled words (RF.3.3d)
- ✔ Make predictions prior to reading Gods, Giants, and Dwarves based on title and images and then compare the actual outcomes to predictions (SL.3.1a)
- ✔ Use spelling patterns and generalizations (e.g., word families, position-based spelling) in writing words with /k/ spelled ‘c’, ‘k’, ‘ck’, ‘ch’, and ‘cc’ (L.3.2f)

Advance Preparation

If you wish, you may draw the spelling table on the board or chart paper before you begin this lesson.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>‘c’ &gt; /k/</th>
<th>‘k’ &gt; /k/</th>
<th>‘ck’ &gt; /k/</th>

<th>‘cc’ &gt; /k/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Note to Teacher

During this week, you will review spellings of /k/ spelled ‘c’, ‘k’, ‘ck’, ‘ch’, and ‘cc’. Students should be familiar with all of these spellings as they were taught in Grades 1 and 2.
The following chart is provided for your review:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Spellings for the Sound /k/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>(64%) Spelled ‘c’ as in cat</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(22%) Spelled ‘k’ as in kid</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(9%)  Spelled ‘ck’ as in black</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(3%)  Spelled ‘ch’ as in school</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(1%)  Spelled ‘cc’ as in hiccup</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(1%)  All other spellings</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Here are some patterns for you to be aware of:

• The spelling ‘c’ is found at the beginning, in the middle, or at the end of syllables (cat, act, attic).

• The spelling ‘k’ is found at the beginning, in the middle, or at the end of syllables (kite, skin, cook).

• The spelling ‘ck’ is found at the end of syllables, after short vowel sounds (back, slick, rocking).

• The spelling ‘ch’ is found at the beginning, in the middle, or at the end of syllables (chaos, anchor, stomach).

• The spelling ‘cc’ is always found in the middle of words (raccoon, soccer).

In this unit, students will focus on three academic vocabulary words: devise, formulate, and appropriate. By academic vocabulary, we mean words that support reading comprehension and may appear across a variety of materials, in language arts and in content areas. These words can be found in textbooks, assignment directions, and assessments. Understanding academic vocabulary may contribute to improved performance on assignments and assessments, as these words often appear in directions to students. These words may appear on end-of-year assessments that third graders may take. Where applicable, we use the words throughout the unit, not just as they might refer to reading selections but also with regard to spelling, grammar, morphology, and comprehension. They may also appear in directions, assessments, spelling lists, and discussion questions, among other places.

• To devise means to think of a way to create something.

• We define formulate as to devise an idea and then state it in a clear way.

• Appropriate means suitable, fitting, or right.
We encourage you to define these words for students and use all three of these words throughout the school day so that students may experience multiple uses of them.

Assessment

Mid-Year Assessment

During this week, you will be administering the Mid-Year Assessment to students. This is a valuable time to pause and reflect on the progress that students have made and plan to address any deficiencies that may be appearing at this point in the year.

At the end of Lesson 2, you will find a guide that will assist you in determining the areas of concern and success for each student for silent reading comprehension and word reading in isolation.

- Ask students to turn to Worksheet 1.1.
- Be forthright with students and tell them that this is a long assessment.
- Tell them how important it is that they do their very best.
- Discuss with students once again how to take a personal break as they work.
- Tell students that they will only be working for 30 minutes today and then they will stop.
- Reassure students that they most likely will not finish today.
- Tell students that tomorrow, they will finish anything that is not finished today and that they should take their time and check their work.
- Tell students that this assessment consists of three reading selections. Each reading selection is followed by comprehension questions.
- Tell students to silently read the first selection and then answer the comprehension questions. Point out that they may refer back to the reading selection if needed as they answer the questions. When they finish the first selection and set of questions, they should start the second selection and set of questions. When they finish the second selection, they should start the third selection and set of questions.
Tell students to work until you tell them to stop or until they see the stop sign in their Workbook.

Circulate throughout the room as students work, giving an encouraging word, but do not assist students with the assessment.

Collect students’ worksheets and staple them together. You will need to give the worksheets back to students during the next lesson if they have not finished.

Reading Time 25 minutes

Whole Group: “Introduction to Norse Mythology”

Introducing the Reader

- Make sure that each student has a copy of the Reader, Gods, Giants, and Dwarves. Explain that this Reader includes myths from the ancient Scandinavian countries.

- Tell students that the word Norse comes from the word north; the warriors who lived in the north were called Vikings. They left the area where they lived, in what is now northern Europe, and attacked foreign lands. The Vikings passed down the Norse myths in this Reader through many generations.

- Remind students that in the earlier unit on ancient Rome, they read several Roman myths; ask them to name and briefly describe these myths. (e.g. “Cupid and Psyche” and “Androcles and the Lion”)

- Ask students to describe what myths are. (Myths are fictional tales that often include gods and goddesses with supernatural powers. Ancient people often used myths to explain natural events for which they did not have a scientific explanation. The violence often found in myths reflects the harsh realities of ancient times.)

- Have students turn to the Table of Contents.

- Either read several chapter titles from the Table of Contents aloud to students or have students read them.

- Give students a few moments to flip through the Reader and comment on the images they see.

- Ask students if they have any predictions about what the Reader might be about.
Introducing the Kingdoms of Norse Mythology

- Have students turn to page 7 of Gods, Giants, and Dwarves. Point to each of the following kingdoms, or lands, of Norse mythology in the image on page 7 and introduce them to students using the following explanations.

Note to Teacher

There is a pronunciation key on page 6 of the Reader that includes information about how to say the names of the kingdoms and the characters in Norse mythology. The first name in the following list is not included in the pronunciation key but does appear in the Reader.

- Yggdrasil [EEG-dro-sil]—a giant tree said to hold up the whole universe. It has three roots—one root stretched to the land of ice, one root to Asgard, the land of the gods, and one to Jotunheim, the land of the giants.
- Asgard—the land of the gods
- Valhalla—a place where brave men who had died feasted while Valkyries served them; the “Hall of the Slain” where the brave men would be honored as heroes
- Jotunheim—the land of the giants that was very mountainous
- Midgard—Earth, which was connected to Asgard by the Rainbow Bridge
- Hel—the underworld; also the name of the goddess of the underworld
- Nidavellir—the underground land of the dwarves

Introducing the Characters in Norse Mythology

- Have students turn to pages 8–9 of Gods, Giants, and Dwarves. Point to each of the following characters in the image and, using the following explanations, introduce them to students.

  - Odin—also called Woden and many other names; the ruler of the gods; lived in Asgard; had an eight-legged horse; also had two ravens who flew around the world each day and returned at night to report the happenings of the world; often magically transformed his appearance. One saga says that Odin transformed himself to appear like a wandering traveler in order to drink from the Well of Wisdom. To drink from the Well of Wisdom, Odin had to sacrifice his eye, symbolizing his willingness to gain the knowledge of the past, present, and future. As he drank, he saw all the sorrows and troubles that would fall upon men and the gods. He also saw why the sorrows and troubles had to come to men.

- Frigga—Odin’s wife, queen of Asgard; mother of Balder and Hod, stepmother of Thor; personification of “Mother Earth”
- Balder—the son of Odin and Frigga and one of the most loved gods in Asgard; He was considered a shining god of light.
- Hod—Balder’s twin brother, who was blind
- Valkyries—maidens who waited on and served Odin at Asgard and the brave, dead men in Valhalla; also said to hover around battlefields during war so that they could transport brave Norsemen killed in battle to Valhalla
- Tyr—god of war
- Freya—goddess of love and beauty; had a chariot drawn by two cats; had a beautiful necklace of gold and jewels made by the dwarves; also had a cloak of falcon feathers; loaned feathers from her cloak to the other gods when they needed to travel or fly somewhere quickly
- Sif—Thor’s wife
- Thor—son of Odin; the strongest god; the thunder god; had a magic hammer and a magic belt that he used to fight the giants, who were enemies of the gods. The hammer could hit any target. After hitting its target, the hammer returned to Thor’s right hand all by itself. When Thor put on the magic belt, he became twice as strong. Thor rode in a chariot pulled by two goats. Whenever Thor rode in his chariot, people could hear the noise from the wheels (thunder) and saw the strong sparks the wheels sent out as they sped across the sky (lightning). Others said the mighty sparks came from his hammer. Humans called this thunder and lightning.
- Loki—son of the giants (who were actually the enemies of the gods), but Odin invited him to live at Asgard as his “blood brother”; a trickster, full of mischief; often got into trouble; could transform his appearance to trick others; in the images in this Reader, Loki appears smaller than other giants and more like the size of gods
- Siguna—Loki’s wife
• Heimdall—the guardian at the Rainbow Bridge
• Thrym—a giant who was in love with Freya; stole Thor’s hammer
• Have students identify which characters would live in each of the realms on the tree, Yggdrassil, on page 7. (Valhalla—Valkyries; Asgard—Odin, Frigga, Balder, Hod, Tyr, Freya, Sif, Thor, Loki, Siguna, Heimdall; Jotunheim—Thrym; Nidavellir—dwarves)
• Tell students that during the next lesson, they will begin reading the adventures of some of the Norse gods.

Spelling

25 minutes

Introduce Spelling Words

- Tell students that this week, they will review all the spellings of /k/.
- As you introduce each of the spelling words, write it on the board, pronouncing each word as you write it.

1. coarse
2. thickness
3. snowflake
4. occur
5. anchor
6. soccer
7. calendar
8. kindness
9. occupy
10. lookout
11. stomach
12. quickly
13. candle
14. attack
15. character
16. course
17. kangaroo
18. accomplish
19. Challenge Word: example
20. Challenge Word: mountain

Content Word: Loki

- Go back through the list of words, having students read the words and tell you what letters to circle for /k/.
• Point to the Challenge Words on the board. Explain to students that the Challenge Words, example and mountain, are also part of their spelling list and are words used very often. Neither Challenge Word follows the spelling patterns for this week. Use the Challenge Words in sentences as examples for students: “An example of a color is red.” “The athlete climbed the mountain for exercise.”

• Remind students that this week, they once again have a Content Word. Review with them that the Content Word is a little harder than the other words. (If students try to spell the Content Word on the assessment and don’t get it right, they will not be penalized. Simply correct it as you do the other words and applaud their effort. There should not be a penalty for not trying or misspelling the Content Word. The important thing is that they tried something that was a stretch for them academically.)

• Tell students that the Content Word, Loki, does follow the spelling pattern for this week as the ‘k’ is pronounced /k/. Loki is a content-related word. Loki is a character in the Norse myths who is a trickster or one who is full of mischief. He is a main character in Gods, Giants, and Dwarves.

• Point out to students that two of the spelling words sound alike but are spelled differently. (course, coarse)

• Tell students that words like these are called homophones.
• Remind students that homophones are words that sound alike but are spelled differently and have different meanings. Students learned the homophones been and bin in a previous unit.

• Tell students that one definition of course is a part of a meal served by itself and the definition of coarse is having a rough surface or texture. Read these sentences to students: “The main course was a pasta dish.” “Sandpaper has a coarse surface.”

• If there is time, you might generate a short list of homophones with students. The list may include some of the following. There are certainly many more pairs of homophones that can be generated by your class. Select the ones that best suit students.

1. there/their
2. two/to/too
3. pair/pare/pear
4. hear/here
5. your/you’re

• Now, draw the following table on the board:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>‘c’ &gt; /k/</th>
<th>‘k’ &gt; /k/</th>
<th>‘ck’ &gt; /k/</th>
<th>‘ch’ &gt; /k/</th>
<th>‘cc’ &gt; /k/</th>
</tr>

</tr>
</tbody>

• Ask students to refer to the spellings for /k/ on page 1 of the Individual Code Chart. Point out that there are five spellings for /k/.

• Point out that this week, they have spelling words that use all five of the different spellings for /k/.

• Ask students to tell you which words to list under each of the headers. Briefly explain the meaning of each word.
• Practice the words as follows during the remaining time. Call on a student to read any word on the table. Then, have the student orally use the word in a meaningful sentence. After the student says the sentence, have him/her ask the class: “Does that sentence make sense?” If the class says, “Yes,” then the student puts a check mark in front of the word and calls on another student to come to the front and take a turn. If the class says, “No,” have the student try again or call on another student to come to the front and use the word in a meaningful sentence. This continues until all the words are used or time has run out.

• Tell students this table will remain on display until the assessment so that they may refer to it during the week.

• Tell students they will take home Worksheet 1.2 with this week’s spelling words to share with a family member.

Take-Home Material

Family Letter

• Have students take home Worksheet 1.2 to share with a family member.
Lesson 2

☑ Objectives

The following language arts objectives are addressed in this lesson. Objectives aligning with the Common Core State Standards are noted with the corresponding standard in parentheses. Refer to the Alignment Chart for additional standards addressed in all lessons in this unit.

☑ Ask and answer questions (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how), orally or in writing, requiring literal recall and understanding of the details of “Sif’s Golden Hair” by explicitly referring to the text (RL.3.1)

☑ Recount stories read independently, including myths; determine the central message and explain how it is conveyed through key details in the text (RL.3.2)

☑ Describe characters in “Sif’s Golden Hair” (e.g., traits, motivations) and explain how their actions contribute to the sequence of events (RL.3.3)

☑ Explain how specific aspects of the illustrations in “Sif’s Golden Hair” contribute to what is conveyed by the words of the story (e.g., create mood, emphasize aspects of a character or setting) (RL.3.7)

☑ Determine the meaning of general academic words and domain-specific words and phrases relevant to Sif’s golden hair in “Sif’s Golden Hair” (RI.3.4)

☑ Describe images, orally or in writing, and how they contribute to what is conveyed by the words in “Sif’s Golden Hair” (RI.3.7)

☑ Compare and contrast the most important points and key details presented in Stories of Ancient Rome regarding Mt. Olympus and Gods, Giants, and Dwarves regarding Asgard (RI.3.9)

☑ Independently read “Sif’s Golden Hair” with purpose and understanding (RF.3.4a)

☑ Use linking words, conjunctions, and phrases (e.g., because) to connect ideas within categories of information (W.3.2c)

☑ Use coordinating and subordinating conjunctions (e.g., because) (L.3.1h)

☑ Produce compound sentences (L.3.1i)

☑ Use a glossary to determine or clarify the precise meaning of key words and phrases (L.3.4d)

Add this to the conjunctions poster:

- The conjunction because is used to mean “for this reason” and signals the answer to a “why” question. It signals the cause of something.

Write these sentences on the board or chart paper for use during the Grammar lesson:

She stayed warm outside because she remembered to put on her heavy coat.

School was cancelled because it was snowing.

Because I practiced my words each night, I got a good grade on my spelling assessment.
Mid-Year Assessment

- Tell students that today, they will continue to work on the Mid-Year Assessment. Pass out Worksheet 1.1 that you collected during the previous lesson for students who need to finish it.
- Ask them to resume their work at this time. Once again, urge them to take their time and do their very best.
- For students who have finished, encourage them to check over every single question before turning the assessment in to you.
- If you have students who have finished the written portion, today you will begin to administer the Word Reading in Isolation portion of the Mid-Year Assessment.
- Students who have finished the assessment and are waiting for you to administer the Word Reading in Isolation Assessment may work on Worksheets E.1 or E.2. Each of these worksheets is a stand-alone worksheet and may be used in any order that you feel best suits the needs of your class.

Note: At the end of this lesson is an analysis sheet for your use as you check Worksheet 1.1.

Directions for Word Reading in Isolation Assessment

- Turn to the Word List for the Mid-Year Word Reading in Isolation Assessment that you prepared in advance.
- Cover all of the words before calling a student back to you.
- Call on one student and ask him or her to join you in the assessment area.
- Tell the student that today, he or she will read some words aloud to you.
- Tell the student that it is important to do his/her very best reading.
- Uncover the first row of words by moving the paper down one space.
- As the student reads the word, mark any incorrect letter-sound correspondences above the word on the Word Reading in Isolation Scoring Sheet you copied in advance. Also, note whether the student incorrectly chunks letters into syllables, leading to mispronunciation. If the student reads the word correctly, simply place a check mark by the word.
• If, after 10 seconds, the student is unable to read the word at all, simply tell the student the word and move on. Mark an X above the word on the recording sheet.

• When the student has finished reading the word list, look over the chart to note any patterns that might appear to indicate gaps in phoneme knowledge or syllabication difficulties.

• Refer to the end of this lesson for analysis directions.

Reading Time 25 minutes

Whole Group: “Sif’s Golden Hair”

Introducing the Chapter

• Review the kingdoms and characters in Norse mythology that were discussed in the previous lesson.

• Tell students that the title of today’s chapter is “Sif’s Golden Hair.”

• Ask students to turn to the Table of Contents, locate the chapter, and then turn to the first page of the chapter.

Previewing the Vocabulary

As in previous units, we recommend the use of the provided Vocabulary Cards. Preview specific Vocabulary Cards immediately before students are asked to read the page(s) on which they appear. The page number where the word first appears in “Sif’s Golden Hair” is listed in bold print after the definition. A word in parentheses after the definition is another form of the vocabulary word that appears in the chapter. An asterisk after a word indicates the word is also taught in Listening & Learning.

• If needed, assist students in decoding these words using the established procedures described in detail in the earlier Grade 3 units. Words with sound spellings that are not found on the Individual Code Chart have the rare sound spelling noted after the word.
Vocabulary for “Sif’s Golden Hair”

1. raven—a large, black bird that was one of many flying spies for Odin (ravens) (10)
2. mead—a drink made by mixing water, honey, malt, and yeast (10)
3. veil ['ei' > /æ/ (reign, beige)]—material worn on the head to cover the face (12)
4. vein ['ei' > /æ/ (reign, beige)]—a vessel like a tube that carries blood to the heart from other parts of the body (veins) (12)
5. scoundrel—a cruel, dishonest person (12)
6. hideous—very ugly (14)
7. dwarf—a mythical, human-like creature that lives underground (dwarves) (14)
8. awry ['a’ > /a/ (about)]—wrong, happening in an unexpected way (14)
9. assembly—a meeting (16)
10. summon—to call for (summoned) (16)

Guided Reading Supports and Purpose for Reading

- Remind students that if they are confused or forget a word meaning as they read, they know how to look up a word in the glossary and find the definition. Also, remind students about the different forms of words in parentheses after some words in the glossary.

Pages 10–13

- Follow your established procedures to display the image for this chapter and preview the Vocabulary Cards for raven, mead, veil, vein, and scoundrel. Note for students that the words ravens and veins are used in this chapter.
- Direct students’ attention to the image on page 11 and read the caption aloud as a class.
- Tell students that as they read and learn about Norse gods and goddesses, they will find that many of the days of the week are named after Norse gods. Remind students that they learned in Stories of Ancient Rome that many of the planets and months of the year are named after Roman gods.
- Ask students to read pages 10–13 to themselves to find the answer to the question: “What happened to Sif’s hair?”
• Circulate throughout the room as students are reading, lending assistance as needed.

• When students have finished reading, restate the question and ask students to answer. (Sif’s hair has been cut off.)

• Direct students’ attention to the image and caption on page 13.

Pages 14–17

• Following your established procedures, preview the Vocabulary Cards for hideous, dwarf, awry, assembly, and summon. Note for students that the words dwarves and summoned are used in this chapter.

• Ask students to predict who cut off Sif’s hair.

• Have students read pages 14–17 to themselves to find out who cut off Sif’s hair.

• When students have finished reading, restate the question and ask students to answer. (Thor suspects that Loki cut off Sif’s hair because Loki has the reputation for being a troublemaker. Loki admits to doing it.)

• Direct students’ attention to the images and captions on pages 15 and 17.

Wrap-Up

• Have students help you fill in the fiction chart for this chapter. Use details from the chapter and images. You may wish to use the following questions to generate student ideas:

- Characters: Who are the main characters in this chapter?
- Setting: Where do the events in this chapter take place?
- Plot: What is the big problem in this chapter? Why is Thor so angry?

Note: Possible responses to the above questions are included in the following chart. Students' responses may be different.

• Remind students that in this chapter, they learned where the name of two days of the week came from.
• Ask students to turn to Worksheet 2.1 and find the row that says “Wednesday.”

• Direct students to write Odin in the column under “Named for.” Under the header “Origin,” students should write Norse.

• Ask students to turn to page 13 and silently read the caption under the picture to find out who another day of the week is named for.

• Allow students time to read the caption and ask them to answer the question: “Which day of the week is named for Thor?” (Thursday)

• Direct students to write Thor in the column under “Named for” for Thursday. Under the header “Origin,” students should write Norse.

Note: Students will complete the remaining rows of this chart in future lessons so you may wish to have students leave Worksheet 2.1 in their workbook for future lessons.

• Complete Worksheet 2.2 as a teacher-guided activity.

Grammar 25 minutes

Introduce Conjunction *because

• Draw students’ attention to the conjunctions poster.

Conjunctions

Conjunctions are words that connect other words or groups of words.

• The conjunction and connects words or groups of words. It means plus, along with, or also.

• The conjunction but is used to connect groups of words. It signals that “something different,” such as a different idea, will come after but.

• The conjunction because is used to mean “for this reason” and signals the answer to a “why” question. It signals the cause of something.

• Review meanings of the conjunctions and and but.

• Read the third bullet on the poster. (The conjunction because is used to mean “for this reason” and signals the answer to a “why” question. It also signals the cause of something.)
• Tell students that the conjunction because joins two simple sentences.

• Read the first sentence you placed on the board in advance. Draw two lines under the word because to show that it is a conjunction.

She stayed warm outside because she remembered to put on her heavy coat.

• Point out that the groups of words on either side of the conjunction are simple sentences, each with a subject and a verb.

• Read the first part of the sentence. (She stayed warm outside.)

• Ask students to replace the word because with the words for this reason.

She stayed warm outside for this reason: She remembered to put on her heavy coat.

• Ask students to look at the sentence and tell “why” she stayed warm outside.

• Point out the answer to the “why” question is that she remembered to put on her heavy coat and is signaled by the word because.

• Point out that if students were asked, “Why did she stay warm outside?”, the answer to the question would be: She stayed warm outside because she remembered to put on her coat.

• Ask students which happened first, staying warm or putting on her coat.

• Point out that in order for her to stay warm, she would have had to put on the coat first. Therefore, she put on the coat first and that caused her to stay warm.

• Point out that whatever happens first is the cause.

• Tell students the words cause and effect are terms used to describe when one event made a second event happen. Point out to students that the word cause is a part of the word because.

• Tell students that in order to find which event is the cause, they should look for the word because. The part of the sentence that is the cause will come after the word because.

• Draw a circle around the word cause that is part of the word because.
• Ask students what the cause is in the sentence. (she remembered to put on her coat) Write the word Cause above this part of the sentence.

• Ask students what the effect is in the sentence. (she stayed warm outside) Write the word Effect above this part of the sentence.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Effect</th>
<th>Cause</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>She stayed warm outside because she remembered to put on her heavy coat.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

• Tell students that simple sentences can be written in reverse order without changing the meaning. Share the following example with students:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Cause</th>
<th>Effect</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Because she remembered to put on her heavy coat, she stayed warm outside.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>

• Be certain that students understand that the cause always happens first and the effect happens after the cause, regardless of the order in which these events or sentence parts are presented. Reiterate that the cause is always signaled or introduced by the word because.

• Point out the next two sentences you placed on the board in advance. Draw two lines under the word because in each sentence. Ask students to decide which event (or simple sentence) happened first and caused the other event (or simple sentence) to happen next.

| School was cancelled because it was snowing. |
| Because I practiced my words each night, I got a good grade on my spelling assessment. |

• Ask which happened first, school was cancelled or it was snowing. (it was snowing.)

• Ask which happened first, I practiced my words each night or I got a good grade on my spelling assessment. (I practiced my words each night.)
• Write the words Cause and Effect over the correct parts of the two sentences.

<table>

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Cause</th>
<th>Effect</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Because I practiced my words each night, I got a good grade on my spelling assessment.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

• Ask students to answer the following question in a complete sentence, “Why was school cancelled?” (Students should answer, “School was cancelled because it was snowing.”)

• Ask students to answer the following question in a complete sentence, “Why did I get a good grade on my spelling assessment?” (Students should answer, “I got a good grade on my spelling test because I practiced my words each night.”)

• Point out that the cause (or event that happened first) always begins with the word because.

• Point out that for comprehension questions that ask a “why” question, students should always look for the word because in the text.

• Turn to Worksheet 2.3 and complete as a teacher-guided activity.

“Sif’s Golden Hair”; Glossary for Gods Giants and Dwarves

Have students take home Worksheet 2.4 to read to a family member and Worksheet PP55 to use as a reference during this unit.

The following sheets are provided for your use in directing remediation. Make a copy of each page.

Write the names of students who missed particular sounds under each header. This will help you determine what kind of remediation is needed.

Refer to the Table of Contents in the Assessment and Remediation Guide to locate information about specific phonemes and syllabication for remediation purposes.

Lesson 3

Objectives

The following language arts objectives are addressed in this lesson. Objectives aligning with the Common Core State Standards are noted with the corresponding standard in parentheses. Refer to the Alignment Chart for additional standards addressed in all lessons in this unit.

✓ Ask and answer questions (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how), orally or in writing, requiring literal recall and understanding of the details of “Loki and the Dwarves” by explicitly referring to the text (RL.3.1)

✓ Recount stories read independently, including myths; determine the central message and explain how it is conveyed through key details in the text (RL.3.2)

✓ Describe characters in “Loki and the Dwarves” (e.g., traits, motivations) and explain how their actions contribute to the sequence of events (RL.3.3)

✓ Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in “Loki and the Dwarves,” distinguishing literal from nonliteral language (e.g., Loki being a smooth talker) (RL.3.4)

✓ Explain how specific aspects of the illustrations in “Loki and the Dwarves” contribute to what is conveyed by the words of the story (e.g., create mood, emphasize aspects of a character or setting) (RL.3.7)

✓ Compare and contrast the characters, settings, and plots of stories read independently from different chapters of the same reader (RL.3.9)

✓ Determine the meaning of general academic words and domain-specific words and phrases relevant to Loki and the dwarves in “Loki and the Dwarves” (RI.3.4)

✓ Describe images, orally or in writing, and how they contribute to what is conveyed by the words in “Loki and the Dwarves” (RI.3.7)

✓ Decode words with common Latin suffixes –ive and –ly (RF.3.3b)

✓ Independently read “Loki and the Dwarves” with purpose and understanding (RF.3.4a)

✓ Make predictions based on text heard thus far as to whether peace will last (SL.3.1a)

✓ Determine the meaning of words formed when –ive or –ly is added to a known root word (L.3.4b)

✓ Use a glossary to determine or clarify the precise meaning of key words and phrases (L.3.4d)

✓ Identify real-life connections between words and their use (e.g., people who are cooperative, appreciative) (L.3.5b)

Advance Preparation

Prepare the following sentence strips in advance for the Morphology lesson; alternately you may write the sentences on the board or chart paper and cover them.

- Sam can act like a monkey.
- He is an active boy.
- He actively plays with his brother.

Mid-Year Assessment

Although the majority of students should have completed the Silent Reading Assessment in the previously allotted 60 minutes, there may be a few who have not finished. If this is the case, ask them to finish it today. You may also want to pay particular attention to these students to find out why it may be taking them longer than their peers. For students who were absent, please have them complete the assessment during this time.

- Ask students to turn to Worksheet 3.1.
- Tell students that today, they will take an assessment on all of the grammar that they have learned so far in third grade.
- Remind them that they should do their very best work and work quietly so that others may do their best as well.
- When students finish, they may work on additional worksheets provided. (Worksheets E.1–E.3)
• As other students work on the additional worksheets, continue to assess students one-on-one using the Word Reading in Isolation Assessment.

Note: Administer the Word Reading in Isolation Assessment to every student to determine any phoneme deficiencies or syllabication difficulties.

Reading Time

25 minutes

Whole Group: “Loki and the Dwarves”

Introducing the Chapter

• Tell students that the title of today’s chapter is “Loki and the Dwarves.”

• Ask students to turn to the Table of Contents, locate the chapter, and then turn to the first page of the chapter.

Previewing the Vocabulary

• Following your established procedures, preview the vocabulary as well as assist students who need help with decoding.

Vocabulary for “Loki and the Dwarves”

1. realm—a kingdom (18)
2. creature—a living thing, specifically an animal (creatures) (18)
3. surly—rude, mean, unfriendly (18)
4. craftsman—a person who is skilled in making things, especially by hand (craftsmen) (18)
5. flatter—to praise too much in a way that is not sincere or genuine (flattered, flattery) (18)
6. anvil*—a large, iron block used by blacksmiths on which heated metal is hit to shape it (anvils) (20)
7. forge—the furnace in a blacksmith shop used for heating metal (20)
8. master—an expert (masters) (22)
9. guardian—a person who watches and/or protects something or someone (26)
Guided Reading Supports and Purpose for Reading

- Briefly review with students what happened in “Sif’s Golden Hair” by referencing the fiction chart you completed together for that chapter.

- Remind students that if they are confused or forget a word meaning as they read, they know how to look for a word in the glossary and find the definition.

Pages 18–21

- Follow your established procedures to display the image for this chapter and preview the Vocabulary Cards for realm, creature, surly, craftsman, flatter, anvil, and forge. Note for students that the words creatures, craftsmen, flattered, flattery, and anvils are used in this chapter.

- Direct students’ attention to the image on page 19 and read the caption aloud as a class.

- Have students predict what Loki is doing in the workshop of the dwarves.

- Ask students to read pages 18–21 to themselves to find out what the dwarves are making in their workshop.

- When students have finished reading, ask what the dwarves are making. (The dwarves are making hair out of gold.)

- Direct students’ attention to the image and caption on page 21.

Pages 22–27

- Follow your established procedures to preview the Vocabulary Cards for master and guardian. Note for students that the word masters is used in this chapter.

- Ask students to think about the dwarves’ comment that there is nothing they cannot make.

- Ask students to read pages 22–27 to themselves to find the answer to the question: “What other gifts does Loki ask the dwarves to make?”

- When students have finished reading, restate the question and ask students to answer. (Loki asked the dwarves to make a spear so fine it never misses its target and a boat that could be folded up and carried in a pocket.)

- Direct students’ attention to the images and captions on pages 23, 25, and 27.
Wrap-up

• Have students help you fill in the fiction chart for this chapter. Use details from the chapter and images. Compare and contrast with previously read chapters. You may wish to use the following questions to generate student ideas:

  Characters: Who are the main characters in this chapter?
  Setting: Where do the events in this chapter take place?
  Plot: What happens in this chapter?

Note: Possible responses to the above questions are included in the following chart. Students' responses may be different.

• Have students turn to Worksheet 3.2 and complete it with a partner.

Morphology

Introduce Suffixes –ive and –ly

• Remind students that suffixes are added to the end of a root word.
• Tell students that the two suffixes they will study this week are –ive and –ly. Students previously learned about adding –ly to words with the suffix –ous.
• Write the suffixes on the board and point out that the suffix –ive is pronounced /iv/, even though it is spelled ‘ive’. Students know that –ly is pronounced /lee/.

Adding Suffix –ive

• Explain to students that –ive means “relating to.”
• Tell students that in this part of the lesson, they will add the suffix –ive to root words that are verbs. When –ive is added to a verb, the new word is an adjective.
• Write the word act on the board. Briefly discuss the meaning of the word and then use it in a sentence. (to do or behave; Mom told us that we had to act appropriately at the reception.)

• Add the suffix –ive to act and have students read the suffix, read the new word, and then discuss the meaning of the new word. (relating to doing or behaving)

• Ask students to provide sentences using the word active. (Answers may vary.)

• Ask students for synonyms of active. (energetic, lively)

• Continue in this manner for the remaining –ive words, using the following chart as a guide.

  Note: You will not write the information in the shaded columns on the board as that information is intended for use during oral instruction.

• Point out for students that for the words produce, cooperate, create, appreciate, and decorate the ‘e’ must first be dropped before adding –ive. Also, when adding –ive to produce, the sound that ‘u’ makes changes from /oo/ to /u/, a ‘t’ is added, and the sound that ‘c’ makes changes from /s/ to /k/.

Adding Suffix –ly

- Remind students that –ly means “in a ______ way,” with the blank being the word that –ly is added to.
- Tell students that they will now add the suffix –ly to the words they previously added –ive to. When –ly is added to an adjective, the new word is an adverb.
• Remind students that adverbs with –ly describe verbs, specifically _how_ a verb happens.

• Write the word _active_ on the board. Briefly discuss the meaning of the word and then use it in a sentence. (relating to doing or moving; Robert was an _active_ member of the book club, hosting meetings and making book suggestions.)

• Add the suffix –_ly_ to _active_ and have students read the suffix, read the new word, and then discuss the meaning of the new word. (in an active way)

• Ask students to provide sentences using the word _actively_. (Answers may vary.)

• Continue in this manner for the remaining –_ly_ words, using the following chart as a guide.

  Note: You will not write the information in the shaded columns on the board as that information is intended for use during oral instruction.

</table>
• Direct students’ attention to the first sentence you prepared in advance:

Sam can act like a monkey.

• Ask students, “What can Sam do like a monkey?” They should respond act. Ask them for the part of speech (verb) and draw a wiggly line under act.

• Then, display the next sentence:

He is an active boy.

• Ask students, “What kind of boy is he?” (active) Draw a box around active and then draw an arrow to boy, stating that active is an adjective that describes boy.

• Now, display the next sentence:

He actively plays with his brother.

• Ask students, “What does the boy do?” (plays) Draw a wiggly line under plays and identify it as a verb.

• Then ask students, “How does the boy play?” (actively) Draw a triangle around actively, stating that it is an adverb. Remind students that adverbs ending in –ly describe verbs, telling how. Draw an arrow from actively to plays.

• Complete Worksheets 3.3–3.6 in the same manner in which you have completed these worksheets in previous lessons.

Take-Home Material

Lesson 4

Objectives

The following language arts objectives are addressed in this lesson. Objectives aligning with the Common Core State Standards are noted with the corresponding standard in parentheses. Refer to the Alignment Chart for additional standards addressed in all lessons in this unit.

- Ask and answer questions (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how), orally or in writing, requiring literal recall and understanding of the details of “Stolen Thunder” by explicitly referring to the text (RL.3.1)
- Recount stories read independently, including myths; determine the central message and explain how it is conveyed through key details in the text (RL.3.2)
- Describe characters in “Stolen Thunder” (e.g., traits, motivations) and explain how their actions contribute to the sequence of events (RL.3.3)
- Explain how specific aspects of the illustrations in “Stolen Thunder” contribute to what is conveyed by the words of the story (e.g., create mood, emphasize aspects of a character or setting) (RL.3.7)
- Compare and contrast the characters, settings, and plots of stories read independently from different chapters of the same reader (RL.3.9)
- Determine the meaning of general academic words and domain-specific words and phrases relevant to Thor and his stolen hammer in “Stolen Thunder” (RI.3.4)
- Describe images, orally or in writing, and how they contribute to what is conveyed by the words in “Stolen Thunder” (RI.3.7)
- Independently read “Stolen Thunder” with purpose and understanding (RF.3.4a)
- Use linking words, conjunctions, and phrases (e.g., because) to connect ideas within categories of information (W.3.2c)
- Make predictions based on text heard thus far as to what the gods will do to get Thor’s hammer back (SL.3.1a)
- Use coordinating and subordinating conjunctions (e.g., because) (L.3.1h)
- Produce compound sentences (L.3.1i)
- Use a glossary to determine or clarify the precise meaning of key words and phrases (L.3.4d)
Advance Preparation

Make sure the conjunctions poster is displayed.

Conjunctions

Conjunctions are words that connect other words or groups of words.

- The conjunction and connects words or groups of words. It means plus, along with, or also.
- The conjunction but is used to connect groups of words. It signals that "something different," such as a different idea, will come after but.
- The conjunction because is used to mean "for this reason" and signals the answer to a "why" question. It signals the cause of something.

Assessment

Mid-Year Assessment

- Ask students to turn to Worksheet 4.1.
- Tell students that today, they will take an assessment on all of the prefixes and suffixes that they have learned so far in third grade.
- Remind them that they should do their very best work and work quietly so that others may do their best as well.
- When students finish, they may work on additional worksheets provided.
As other students work on the additional worksheets, continue to assess students one-on-one using the Word Reading in Isolation Assessment.

Note: Administer the Word Reading in Isolation Assessment to every student to determine any phoneme deficiencies or syllabication difficulties.

Reading Time 25 minutes

Whole Group: “Stolen Thunder”

Introducing the Chapter

- Tell students that the title of today’s chapter is “Stolen Thunder.”
- Ask students to turn to the Table of Contents, locate the chapter, and then turn to the first page of the chapter.

Previewing the Vocabulary

- Following your established procedures, preview the vocabulary as well as assist students who need help with decoding.

Vocabulary for “Stolen Thunder”

1. boomerang—a curved stick that is thrown and then returns to the person who threw it (28)
2. journey [‘jour’ > /er/ (tournament)]—a trip (32)
3. what a pity—that’s too bad (32)
4. mince words—to speak in an indirect and dishonest way (32)
5. villainy—evil behavior (34)
6. beast—scoundrel (36)
7. wisdom—knowledge and good judgment gained over time (36)

Guided Reading Supports and Purpose for Reading

- Remind students that as they are reading, if they do not recall the meaning of a word, they can always look it up in the glossary.

Pages 28–31

- Follow your established procedures to display the image for this chapter and preview the Vocabulary Card for boomerang.
• Ask students to read pages 28–31 to themselves to find out what Thor discovered and who he blamed.

• When students having finished reading, restate the question and ask students to answer. (Thor discovered that his hammer was missing and he blamed Loki.)

• Ask, “What did Thor think about Loki this time?” (He thought Loki may be telling the truth this time.)

• Direct students’ attention to the images and captions on pages 29 and 31.

Pages 32–37

• Follow your established procedures to preview the Vocabulary Cards for journey, what a pity, mince words, villainy, beast, and wisdom.

• Ask students to read pages 32–37 to themselves to find the answer to the question: “What did Loki find out from Thrym?”

• When students have finished reading, restate the question and ask students to answer. (Loki found out that Thrym took Thor’s hammer and admitted doing so. Thrym also said he wouldn’t return the hammer unless Freya agreed to marry him.)

• Ask, “What was Freya’s response when Loki told her what Thrym said?” (She said she would never marry that beast.)

• Ask students to predict what they think the gods will do to get Thor’s hammer back.

• Direct students’ attention to the images and captions on pages 33, 35, and 37.

Wrap-up

• Have students help you fill in the fiction chart for this chapter. Use details from the chapter and images. Compare and contrast with previously read chapters. You may wish to use the following questions to generate student ideas:

  • Characters: Who are the main characters in this chapter?
  • Setting: Where do the events in this chapter take place?
  • Plot: What is the problem in this chapter? How do the characters deal with it?
Note: Possible responses to the questions are included in the following chart. Students’ responses may be different.

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Have students turn to Worksheet 4.2 and complete it independently.

Grammar 25 minutes

Answer Comprehension Questions Using Conjunction because

- Draw students’ attention to the conjunctions poster you prepared for an earlier lesson.

Conjunctions

Conjunctions are words that connect other words or groups of words.

- The conjunction and connects words or groups of words. It means plus, along with, or also.

- The conjunction but is used to connect groups of words. It signals that “something different,” such as a different idea, will come after but.

- The conjunction because is used to mean “for this reason” and signals the answer to a “why” question. It signals the cause of something.

- Remind students that the conjunction because is used to mean “for this reason” and signals the answer to the question “why.” It also signals the cause of something.

- Remind students that the answer to a “why” comprehension question is often answered by a sentence in the text that uses the word because.
• Have students turn to Worksheet 4.3 and read the instructions with them. Students will read a short text and answer the comprehension questions that follow.

• Have volunteers read the story aloud.

• Guide students through the process of finding the answers by looking for the word because in text. Have students write the answers on the lines that follow each question.

Take-Home Material

“Stolen Thunder”; Practice Conjunctions and, but, and because

• Have students take home Worksheet 4.4 to read to a family member and Worksheet 4.5 to complete.

Advance Preparation

Make sure to erase the spelling table from the board and/or turn the table over so students cannot refer to it during the assessment.

Assessment 30 minutes

Mid-Year Assessment

- If there are students who have still not finished the written assessment, ask them to finish it today.

- As other students work on the additional worksheets (Worksheets E.1–E.4), continue to assess students one-on-one using the Word Reading in Isolation Assessment.

Note: Administer the Word Reading in Isolation Assessment to every student to determine any phoneme deficiencies or syllabication difficulties.

Spelling 25 minutes

Spelling Assessment

- Have students turn to Worksheet 5.1 for the spelling assessment.

- If you would like for students to have pens, this is the time to pass them out.

- Tell students that for this assessment, they will write their words under the header to which they belong. For example, if you call out the word hook, they would write that word under the header ‘k’ /k/.

- Tell students that should a spelling word fit under more than one header, they should only write the word under one.

- Tell students that they may not have to use all the lines under each header.

- Using the following chart, call out the word using the following format: say the word, use it in a sentence, and say the word once more.
• After you have called out all of the words including the Challenge Words and the Content Word, go back through the list slowly, reading each word just once more.

• Ask students to write the following sentences as you dictate them:

  1. The candle flickered and went out.
  2. Loki causes a lot of trouble.

• After students have finished, collect pens, if used.

• Follow your established procedures to correct the spelling words.

Note to Teacher

At a later time today, you may find it helpful to use the template provided at the end of this lesson to analyze students’ mistakes. This will help you to understand any patterns that are beginning to develop, or that are persistent among individual students.
Whole Group: “A Plan Is Made”

Introducing the Chapter

- Tell students that the title of today’s chapter is “A Plan Is Made.”
- Ask students to turn to the Table of Contents, locate the chapter, and then turn to the first page of the chapter.

Previewing the Vocabulary

- Following your established procedures, preview the vocabulary as well as assist students who need help with decoding.

Vocabulary for “A Plan Is Made”

1. rogue—a person who playfully causes trouble (40)
2. maid of honor—an unmarried female attendant of a bride (40)
3. massive—huge (42)
4. barrel-chested—having a large, round chest (44)
5. corset—a tight, stiff undergarment worn to make a woman’s waist appear smaller (44)
6. dainty—small and pretty, delicate (44)
7. conceal—to hide (concealed) (46)
8. adventure—an exciting or dangerous experience (46)

Guided Reading Supports and Purpose for Reading

- Ask students to retell what happened in the chapter “Stolen Thunder,” using the fiction chart.
- Remind students that as they are reading, if they do not recall the meaning of a word, they can always look it up in the glossary.

Pages 38–41

- Follow your established procedures to display the image for this chapter and preview the Vocabulary Cards for rogue and maid of honor.
- Ask students to read pages 38–41 to themselves to find out what Loki suggested they do to get the hammer back.
• When students having finished reading, restate the question and ask students to answer. (Loki suggested someone dress up like Freya to get the hammer back. Loki thought Thor should do it since it is his hammer.)

• Direct students’ attention to the images and captions on pages 39 and 41.

Pages 42–47
• Follow your established procedures to preview the Vocabulary Cards for massive, barrel-chested, corset, dainty, conceal, and adventure. Note for students that the word concealed is used in this chapter.

• Ask students to read pages 42–47 to themselves to find the answer to the question: “What plan was finally chosen for getting Thor’s hammer back?”

• When students have finished reading, restate the question and ask students to answer. (Thor agreed to dress up as Freya and pretend to marry Thrym to get the hammer back. Loki would go as Thor’s maid of honor.)

• Ask, “What did Thor do to get ready?” (He was dressed in Freya’s clothing, including a white dress, white shoes, and a veil to cover his face and beard.)

• Ask students to predict what they think will happen once Loki and Thor arrive for the wedding.

• Direct students’ attention to the images and captions on pages 43, 45, and 47.

Wrap-up
• Have students help you fill in the fiction chart for this chapter. Use details from the chapter and images. Compare and contrast with previously read chapters. You may wish to use the following questions to generate student ideas:

   Characters: Who are the main characters in this chapter?

   Setting: Where do the events in this chapter take place?

   Plot: What is the problem in this chapter? How do the characters deal with it?
Note: Possible responses to the questions are included in the following chart. Students’ responses may be different.

Note to Teacher

The information in the next bullet points about days of the week is new information you will provide to students. This information is not in the Reader.

- Tell students that they will add two characters to Worksheet 2.1 whose names relate to names for days of the week.
  - For Friday, have students write Freya and Norse in the appropriate columns.
  - For Tuesday, have students write Tyr and Norse in the appropriate columns.
- To complete Worksheet 2.1, guide students in adding the following information:

Spelling Analysis Directions

Unit 6, Lesson 5

- Students are likely to make the following errors:
  - For ‘c’, students may write ‘k’, ‘ck’, ‘ch’, or ‘cc’
  - For ‘k’, students may write ‘c’, ‘ck’, ‘ch’ or ‘cc’
  - For ‘ck’, students may write ‘c’, ‘k’, ‘ch’ or ‘cc’
  - For ‘ch’, students may write ‘c’, ‘k’, ‘ck’ or ‘cc’
  - For ‘cc’, students may write ‘c’, ‘k’, ‘ck’ or ‘ch’
- While any of the above student-error scenarios may occur, you should be aware that misspellings may be due to many other factors. You may find it helpful to record the actual spelling errors that the student makes in the analysis chart. For example:
  - Is the student consistently making errors on specific vowels? Which ones?
  - Is the student consistently making errors at the end of the words?
  - Is the student consistently making errors on particular beginning consonants?
  - Did the student write words for each feature correctly?
  - Also, examine the dictated sentences for errors in capitalization and punctuation.
Lesson 6

Objectives

The following language arts objectives are addressed in this lesson. Objectives aligning with the Common Core State Standards are noted with the corresponding standard in parentheses. Refer to the Alignment Chart for additional standards addressed in all lessons in this unit.

- Ask and answer questions (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how), orally or in writing, requiring literal recall and understanding of the details of “The Wedding Feast” by explicitly referring to the text (RL.3.1)
- Recount stories read independently, including myths; determine the central message and explain how it is conveyed through key details in the text (RL.3.2)
- Describe characters in a “The Wedding Feast” (e.g., traits, motivations) and explain how their actions contribute to the sequence of events (RL.3.3)
- Explain how specific aspects of the illustrations in “The Wedding Feast” contribute to what is conveyed by the words of the story (e.g., create mood, emphasize aspects of a character or setting) (RL.3.7)
- Compare and contrast the characters, settings, and plots of stories read independently from different chapters of the same reader (RL.3.9)
- Determine the meaning of general academic words and domain-specific words and phrases relevant to the wedding feast in “The Wedding Feast” (RI.3.4)
- Describe images, orally or in writing, and how they contribute to what is conveyed by the words in “The Wedding Feast” (RI.3.7)
- Independently read grade-appropriate irregularly spelled words (RF.3.3d)
- Independently read “The Wedding Feast” with purpose and understanding (RF.3.4a)
- Use spelling patterns and generalizations (e.g., word families, position-based spelling) in writing words with /s/ spelled ‘s’, ‘c’, ‘ss’, ‘ce’, ‘se’, ‘st’, and ‘sc’ (L.3.2f)
- Use a glossary to determine or clarify the precise meaning of key words and phrases (L.3.4d)

Note to Teacher

For Lessons 6–10, you will review the sound /s/ spelled ‘s’, ‘c’, ‘ss’, ‘ce’, ‘se’, ‘st’, and ‘sc’. Students should be familiar with these spelling alternatives as they were taught in Grade 2.

The following chart is provided for your review:

Spellings for the Sound /s/

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Spelling</th>
<th>Percentage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>‘s’ as in sit</td>

<tr>
<td>‘se’ as in rinse</td>
<td>(2%)</td>

<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Here are some patterns for you to be aware of:

- ‘s’ is used to spell /s/ in initial consonant clusters sk–, sl–, sm–, sp–, spl–, st–, str–, sw–, or sq– (skip, slip, smile, spill, splat, stay, straw, sweet, squint) and final clusters –sk, –sp, or –st (desk, wasp, best).
- ‘c’ is used at the beginning of words that start with ce–, ci–, or cy– (cent, cinnamon, Cyprus), but ‘s’ can be used before those letters as well.
- ‘ss’, ‘ce’, and ‘se’ are used to spell a final /s/ that is not a plural marker or a verb form (dress, prince, house); none of these spellings are ever used at the beginning of a word.
- ‘ss’ is typically used after /a/, /e/, /i/, /o/, or /u/ (mass, mess, miss, moss, muss).
- ‘ce’ and ‘se’ are typically used after other vowel sounds (force, choice, horse) and in consonant clusters (prince, rinse).
Whole Group: “The Wedding Feast”

Introducing the Chapter

- Tell students that the title of today’s chapter is “The Wedding Feast.”
- Ask students to turn to the Table of Contents, locate the chapter, and then turn to the first page of the chapter.
- Ask students if they have ever been to a wedding and, if so, to describe what it was like.

Previewing the Vocabulary

- Following your established procedures, preview the vocabulary as well as assist students who need help with decoding.

Vocabulary for “The Wedding Feast”

1. belch—to burp (belched) (50)
2. fast—does not eat for a period of time (fasted) (50)

Guided Reading Supports and Purpose for Reading

- Review the plot of “A Plan Is Made” with students before reading this chapter. Refer to the fiction chart as needed.
- Remind students that as they are reading, if they do not recall the meaning of a word, they can always look it up in the glossary.

Pages 48–51

- Follow your established procedures to display the image for this chapter and preview the Vocabulary Cards for belch, fast. Note for students that the words belched and fasted are used in this chapter.
- Ask students to read pages 48–51 to themselves to find the answer to the question: “What did Thor, dressed as Freya, do as soon as everyone sat down for the wedding feast?”
- When students have finished reading, restate the question and ask students to answer. (He ate a lot of food and belched loudly.)
- Ask, “What did Loki tell Thrym was the reason ‘Freya’ ate so much?” (She had fasted for eight days, thinking only of marrying Thrym, so she was very hungry.)
• Direct students’ attention to the images and captions on pages 49 and 51.

Pages 52–55
• Ask students to read pages 52–55 to themselves to find out what happened when Thrym brought the hammer to “Freya” at Loki’s request.

• When students have finished reading, restate the question and ask students to answer. (Thor burst out of his disguise, shouting. He threw his hammer all over the place, killing Thrym and the servants.)

• Direct students’ attention to the images and captions on pages 53 and 55.

Wrap-up
• Have students help you fill in the fiction chart for this chapter. Use details from the chapter and images. Compare and contrast with previously read chapters. You may wish to use the following questions to generate student ideas:

  Characters: Who are the main characters in this chapter?

  Setting: Where do the events in this chapter take place?

  Plot: What happens in this chapter?

Note: Possible responses to the above questions are included in the following chart. Students’ responses may be different.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

• Have students turn to Worksheet 6.1 and complete it independently.
Introduce Spelling Words

• Tell students that this week they will review all the spellings of /s/.
• As you introduce each of the spelling words, write it on the board, pronouncing each word as you write it.

1. assembly
2. sunshine
3. princess
4. universe
5. advice
6. listen
7. scent
8. surly
9. mince
10. central
11. response
12. whistle
13. subject
14. civil
15. promise
16. glance
17. address
18. fascinate
19. Challenge Word: during
20. Challenge Word: want

Content Word: scoundrel

• Go back through the list of words, having students read the words and tell you what letters to circle for /s/.

1. assembly
2. sunshine
3. princess
4. universe
5. advice
6. listen
7. scent
8. surly
9. mince
10. central
11. response
12. whistle
13. subject
14. civil
15. promise
16. glance
17. address
18. fascinate
19. Challenge Word: during
20. Challenge Word: want

Content Word: scoundrel
Point to the Challenge Words on the board. Explain to students that the Challenge Words, during and want, are also part of their spelling list and are words used very often. Neither Challenge Word follows the spelling patterns for this week. Use the Challenge Words in sentences as examples for students: “We will play baseball during recess today.” “We want to go outside to play.”

Remind students that this week, they once again have a Content Word. Review with them that the Content Word is a little harder than the other words. (If students try to spell the Content Word on the assessment and don’t get it right, they will not be penalized. Simply correct it as you do the other words and applaud their effort. There should not be a penalty for not trying or misspelling the Content Word. The important thing is that they tried something that was a stretch for them academically.)

Tell students that the Content Word, scoundrel, does follow the spelling patterns for this week as the ‘s’ is pronounced /s/. Note for students that scoundrel does not follow the ‘sc’ spelling of the sound /s/ because the ‘c’ is a spelling for the sound /k/. Scoundrel is a content-related word that describes Loki as a cruel, dishonest person and the trickster in Gods, Giants, and Dwarves.

Now, draw the following table on the board:

<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Ask students to refer to the /s/ spellings on the Individual Code Chart page 2. Ask students to tell you which words to list under each of the headers. Briefly explain the meaning of each word.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

</tbody>
</table>
• Ask students to look at the Individual Code Chart for all of the different spellings for /s/. Of the seven spellings, which is used most frequently? (‘s’) Remind students to look at the power bar under the spellings and the order in which they are sequenced to determine frequency.

• Point out that this week, students have spelling words that use all seven of the different spellings for /s/.

• Ask students to locate the additional spellings for /s/ in this week’s spelling words and determine whether they are frequently used spellings or not.

• Practice the words as follows during the remaining time. Call on a student to read any word on the table. Then have the student orally use the word in a meaningful sentence. After the student says the sentence, have him/her ask the class: “Does that sentence make sense?” If the class says, “Yes,” then the student puts a check mark in front of the word and calls on another student to come to the front and take a turn. If the class says, “No,” have the student try again or call on another student to come to the front and use the word in a meaningful sentence. This continues until all the words are used or time has run out.

• Tell students this table will remain on display until the assessment so that they may refer to it during the week.

• Tell students they will take home Worksheet 6.2 with this week’s spelling words to share with a family member.

Remediation and Enrichment

Remediate and Enrich Student Knowledge

Note to Teacher

This block of time is set aside for you to provide remediation to students who showed areas of need on the Mid-Year Assessment. For students who do not need remediation, you may use this block of time for enrichment.

The following resources will be of great help during this instructional period:

Remediation

• Information found in the Pausing Point
  • The Pausing Point in this Teacher Guide lists specific grammar and morphology skills and the lessons during which they were first taught in Grade 3, followed by the Pausing Point worksheet numbers.
• The Assessment and Remediation Guide
  • You may choose to use this to remediate areas of letter-sound correspondences as needed.

• Readers from Units 1–5
  • You may choose to work with students in small groups to address areas of need such as vocabulary and comprehension.

Enrichment
• Extension Activities from Units 1–5
  • You may choose to have students complete extension activities from previous units.
• Writing Prompts from Units 1–5
  • You may choose to have students respond to writing prompts from previous units.
• Additional Chapters and Worksheets from Units 1–5
  • You may choose to have students read additional chapters and complete accompanying worksheets from previous units.
• Reader’s Chair
  • You may choose to have students do this in small groups or with partners using any of the Readers from previous units.
• More Classic Tales and Worksheets
  • You may choose to have students read selections from More Classic Tales and complete the accompanying worksheets.

Take-Home Material

Family Letter; “A Plan is Made”; “The Wedding Feast”

• Have students take home Worksheet 6.2 to share with a family member and Worksheets 6.3 and 6.4 to read to a family member.
Lesson 7

Objectives

The following language arts objectives are addressed in this lesson. Objectives aligning with the Common Core State Standards are noted with the corresponding standard in parentheses. Refer to the Alignment Chart for additional standards addressed in all lessons in this unit.

- Ask and answer questions (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how), orally or in writing, requiring literal recall and understanding of the details of “Balder, the Beautiful” by explicitly referring to the text (RL.3.1)
- Recount stories read independently, including myths; determine the central message and explain how it is conveyed through key details in the text (RL.3.2)
- Describe characters in a “Balder, the Beautiful” (e.g., traits, motivations) and explain how their actions contribute to the sequence of events (RL.3.3)
- Explain how specific aspects of the illustrations in “Balder, the Beautiful” contribute to what is conveyed by the words of the story (e.g., create mood, emphasize aspects of a character or setting) (RL.3.7)
- Compare and contrast the characters, settings, and plots of stories read independently from different chapters of the same reader (RL.3.9)
- Determine the meaning of general academic words and domain-specific words and phrases relevant to Balder in “Balder, the Beautiful” (RI.3.4)
- Describe images, orally or in writing, and how they contribute to what is conveyed by the words in “Balder, the Beautiful” (RI.3.7)
- Compare and contrast the most important points and key details presented in Stories of Ancient Rome regarding Remus and in Gods, Giants, and Dwarves regarding Balder (RI.3.9)
- Independently read “Balder, the Beautiful” with purpose and understanding (RF.3.4a)
- Use linking words, conjunctions, and phrases (e.g., because) to connect ideas within categories of information (W.3.2c)
- Make predictions based on text heard thus far as to what will happen to Balder (SL.3.1a)
- Use coordinating and subordinating conjunctions (e.g., because) (L.3.1h)
- Produce compound sentences (L.3.1i)
- Use a glossary to determine or clarify the precise meaning of key words and phrases (L.3.4d)

Conjunctions

Conjunctions are words that connect other words or groups of words.

- The conjunction and connects words or groups of words. It means plus, along with, or also.
- The conjunction but is used to connect groups of words. It signals that “something different,” such as a different idea, will come after but.
- The conjunction because is used to mean “for this reason” and signals the answer to a “why” question. It signals the cause of something.

Reading Time 25 minutes

Whole Group: “Balder, the Beautiful”

Introducing the Chapter

- Tell students that the title of today’s chapter (Chapter 6) is “Balder, the Beautiful.”
- Ask students to turn to the Table of Contents, locate the chapter, and then turn to the first page of the chapter.

Previewing the Vocabulary

- Following your established procedures, preview the vocabulary as well as assist students who need help with decoding.

Vocabulary for “Balder, the Beautiful”

1. harm—to hurt or damage someone or something (60)
2. disguise—to hide by changing appearance (disguised) (62)
3. rumor—a thing that people say to others about someone or something that may or may not be true (rumors) (62)
4. swear—to make a serious promise (sworn) (64)
5. mistletoe—a plant with thick leaves and white berries; It grows on trees. (64)

Guided Reading Supports and Purpose for Reading

- Remind students that as they are reading, if they do not recall the meaning of a word, they can always look it up in the glossary.
Pages 56–61
- Follow your established procedures to display the image for this chapter and preview the Vocabulary Card for harm or write the word on the board.
- Ask students to read pages 56–61 to themselves to find the answer to the question: “What was Balder’s dream about?”
- When students have finished reading, restate the question and ask students to answer. (His dream was about his own death but he wasn’t sure exactly how he would die.)
- Ask, “What happened when Balder told his mother, Frigga, about his dream?” (She told Odin, who sent his ravens out to investigate. They reported that Hel was preparing to receive one of the gods in the underworld. Frigga decided to talk to everything in the world and make each thing promise not to harm Balder.)
- Direct students’ attention to the images and captions on pages 57, 59, and 61.

Pages 62–65
- Follow your established procedures to preview the Vocabulary Cards for disguise, rumor, swear, and mistletoe or write the word on the board. Note for students that the words disguised, rumors, and sworn are used in this chapter.
- Ask students to read pages 62–65 to themselves to find out what thing Frigga did not talk to and why.
- When students have finished reading, restate the question and ask students to answer. (She did not talk to mistletoe because she didn’t think it could do any harm.)
- Ask, “Did Loki agree with Frigga’s thoughts about mistletoe?” (No, Loki thought mistletoe could do much harm.)
- Ask students to predict what will happen with mistletoe and Balder in the next chapter.
- Direct students’ attention to the images and captions on pages 63 and 65.

Wrap-up
- Have students help you fill in the fiction chart for this chapter. Use details from the chapter and images. Compare and contrast with previously read chapters. You may wish to use the following questions to generate student ideas:
  - Characters: Who are the main characters in this chapter?
  - Setting: Where do the events in this chapter take place?
  - Plot: What happens in this chapter?

Note: Possible responses to the above questions are included in the following chart. Students' responses may be different.
Chapter | Characters | Setting | Plot
---|---|---|---
“Balder, the Beautiful” | Balder, Frigga, Odin, Loki | Asgard, all over the world | Balder had a dream about his death. When he told his mother, Frigga, she found out that Hel was preparing to receive one of the gods. Frigga talked to everything in the world, except mistletoe, and made them promise not to harm Balder.

- Have students turn to Worksheet 7.1 and complete it independently.

Grammar

25 minutes

Practice Cause and Effect with Conjunction because

- Draw students’ attention to the conjunctions poster.

Conjunctions

- Conjunctions are words that connect other words or groups of words.
  - The conjunction and connects words or groups of words. It means plus, along with, or also.
  - The conjunction but is used to connect groups of words. It signals that “something different,” such as a different idea, will come after but.
  - The conjunction because is used to mean “for this reason” and signals the answer to a “why” question. It signals the cause of something.

Note to Teacher: Students have learned about using conjunctions so far only in the context of compound sentences. When the conjunction because is used appropriately in a sentence, the sentence is a complex sentence. A complex sentence is a sentence that contains an independent clause and at least one dependent clause. Students do not need to be aware of these terms at this time.

- Remind students that the conjunction because is used to mean “for this reason” and signals the answer to a “why” question. It signals the cause of something.
- Draw students’ attention to the Cause and Effect Chart you drew on the board or chart paper. Tell students they will read a story today and decide which events should be labeled as Cause and which events should be labeled as Effect.
- Remind students to look for the event that happened first. This is the cause of the event and will be signaled by the word because. It should be listed under the column headed Cause. The event that happened second is the effect and should be listed under the column headed Effect.
- Turn to Worksheet 7.2 and have volunteers read the paragraphs of the story aloud.
- Once the story has been read, remind students that the conjunction because signals that one event has caused another event to happen.
• Remind students that the sentence that is the cause (or event that happened first) always begins with the word because. In this case, students will be adding the word because to the simple sentence that is the cause.

• Divide the class into ten teams and pass out one sentence strip that you prepared in advance to each team.

• Point out to students that the sentence strips are numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, or 5, with two strips for each number.

• Have a student from each team read the sentence strip.

| 1. Paula didn’t get out of bed on time. | 1. She missed the bus. |

• Ask students which event would have happened first. Ask, “Did Paula miss the bus first or did she not get out of bed in time first? Which event caused the other?”

• Tell students that the groups will read their sentence strips once more and the class will vote on whether the sentence is a cause or not.

• If the sentence is a cause, students should vote by putting their hand on top of their heads. If the sentence is not a cause, students should do nothing. Tell students you will call out, “1, 2, 3,” point to the class, and then all should vote.

• Have a student from the first group read the sentence again. (Paula didn’t get out of bed on time.)

• Call out, “1, 2, 3” and point to the class.

• All students should have their hands on their heads to show that this sentence (or event) happened first and is a cause.

• Now have a student from the second group read the sentence again. (She missed the bus.)

• Call out, “1, 2, 3” and point to the class.

• All students should have done nothing, showing that this sentence is not a cause.

• Ask students to tape their two sentence strips under the appropriate heading, Cause or Effect.

• Next, ask students in the first two groups to make a sentence out of the two simple sentences taped to the board by inserting the word because.

• Give students a moment or two to confer and ask for a volunteer to say the sentence. (Because Paula didn’t get out of bed on time, she missed the bus.)

• Repeat the above procedure with the other four pairs of teams.

Remediate and Enrich Student Knowledge

Note to Teacher
This block of time is set aside for you to provide remediation to students who showed areas of need on the Mid-Year Assessment. For students who do not need remediation, you may use this block of time for enrichment.

The following resources will be of great help during this instructional period:

Remediation

- Information found in the Pausing Point
  - The Pausing Point in this Teacher Guide lists specific grammar and morphology skills and the lessons during which they were first taught in Grade 3, followed by the Pausing Point worksheet numbers.

- The Assessment and Remediation Guide
  - You may choose to use this to remediate areas of letter-sound correspondences as needed.

- Readers from Units 1–5
  - You may choose to work with students in small groups to address areas of need such as vocabulary and comprehension.

Enrichment

- Extension Activities from Units 1–5
  - You may choose to have students complete extension activities from previous units.

- Writing Prompts from Units 1–5
  - You may choose to have students respond to writing prompts from previous units.

- Additional Chapters and Worksheets from Units 1–5
  - You may choose to have students read additional chapters and complete accompanying worksheets from previous units.

- Reader’s Chair
  - You may choose to have students do this in small groups or with partners using any of the Readers from previous units.

- More Classic Tales and Worksheets
  - You may choose to have students read selections from More Classic Tales and complete the accompanying worksheets.

“Balder, the Beautiful”

- Have students take home Worksheet 7.3 to read to a family member.
Lesson 8

Objectives

The following language arts objectives are addressed in this lesson. Objectives aligning with the Common Core State Standards are noted with the corresponding standard in parentheses. Refer to the Alignment Chart for additional standards addressed in all lessons in this unit.

- Ask and answer questions (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how), orally or in writing, requiring literal recall and understanding of the details of “The Death of Balder” by explicitly referring to the text (RL.3.1)
- Recount stories read independently, including myths; determine the central message and explain how it is conveyed through key details in the text (RL.3.2)
- Describe characters in a “The Death of Balder” (e.g., traits, motivations) and explain how their actions contribute to the sequence of events (RL.3.3)
- Explain how specific aspects of the illustrations in “The Death of Balder” contribute to what is conveyed by the words of the story (e.g., create mood, emphasize aspects of a character or setting) (RL.3.7)
- Compare and contrast the characters, settings, and plots of stories read independently from different chapters of the same reader (RL.3.9)
- Determine the meaning of general academic words and domain-specific words and phrases relevant to Balder and the dwarves in “The Death of Balder” (RI.3.4)
- Describe images, orally or in writing, and how they contribute to what is conveyed by the words in “The Death of Balder” (RI.3.7)
- Compare and contrast the most important points and key details presented in Stories of Ancient Rome and Gods, Giants, and Dwarves regarding the Underworld (RI.3.9)
- Decode words with common Latin suffixes –ive and –ly (RF.3.3b)
- Independently read “The Death of Balder” with purpose and understanding (RF.3.4a)
- Make predictions based on text read thus far as to what Loki is up to when he approaches Hod (SL.3.1a)
- Determine the meaning of words formed when –ive or –ly is added to a known root word (L.3.4b)
- Use a glossary to determine or clarify the precise meaning of key words and phrases (L.3.4d)
- Identify real-life connections between words and their use (e.g., people who are creative, inventive) (L.3.5)
- Change some story events and provide a different story ending in writing

Reading Time 25 minutes

Whole Group: “The Death of Balder”

Introducing the Chapter

- Tell students that the title of today’s chapter is “The Death of Balder.”
- Ask students to turn to the Table of Contents, locate the chapter, and then turn to the first page of the chapter.

Previewing the Vocabulary

- Following your established procedures, preview the vocabulary as well as assist students who need help with decoding.

Vocabulary for “The Death of Balder”

1. despair—a feeling of being hopeless or extremely sad (68)
2. steed—a horse (70)
3. mourn—to feel or show sadness after a death or loss (mourned, mourning) (70)

Guided Reading Supports and Purpose for Reading

- Review with students what they learned about Balder from reading the previous chapter.
- Remind students that as they are reading, if they do not recall the meaning of a word, they can always look it up in the glossary.

Pages 66–69

- Follow your established procedures to display the image for this chapter and preview the Vocabulary Card for despair.
• Ask students to read pages 66–69 to themselves to find out what Loki convinced Hod to do.

• When students have finished reading, restate the question and ask students to answer. (Loki convinced Hod to play along like others and shoot an arrow with mistletoe at Balder. Other things bounced off Balder so Loki told Hod this would be the same thing.)

• Ask, “What actually happened when Hod shot the arrow?” (Balder fell to the ground because the arrow did not bounce off of him. He died.)

• Direct students’ attention to the images and captions on pages 67 and 69.

Pages 70–73

• Follow your established procedures to preview the Vocabulary Cards for steed and mourn. Note for students that the words mourned and mourning are used in this chapter.

• Ask students to read pages 70–73 to themselves to find out what Hel said had to happen for the gods to have Balder back.

• When students have finished reading, restate the question and ask students to answer. (Hel said all things had to mourn for Balder and the gods could have him back.)

• Ask, “Did this plan work?” (No, Loki dressed up as an old woman and refused to mourn for Balder so the gods could not have Balder back.)

• Direct students’ attention to the images and captions on pages 71 and 73.

Wrap-up

• Have students help you fill in the fiction chart for this chapter. Use details from the chapter and images. Compare and contrast with previously read chapters. You may wish to use the following questions to generate student ideas:

  Characters: Who are the main characters in this chapter?

  Setting: Where do the events in this chapter take place?

  Plot: What happens in this chapter?

  Note: Possible responses to the above questions are included in the following chart. Students’ responses may be different.
Morphology

Practice Suffixes –ive and –ly

- Remind students that in a previous lesson, they learned about the suffixes –ive and –ly.
- Remind students that –ive means “relating to” and –ly means “in a _____ way.”
- Tell students that you will give them two word choices. The words will have either the suffix –ive or both the suffixes –ive and –ly. Then, you will read a sentence and students must decide which of the word choices fits in the sentence.

Appreciative or appreciatively? Lori _____ hugged her father and thanked him for helping her with her project. (appreciatively)

Decorative or decoratively? She placed a _____ vase of beautiful roses on the dining room table. (decorative)

Creative or creatively? Nathan is very _____ and can paint all kinds of images without looking at anything for a guide. (creative)

Cooperative or cooperatively? My cousins and I _____ worked to remove the boxes of junk from our grandma’s basement. (cooperatively)

Expressive or expressively? The mayor spoke _____ at the press conference about the damage done by the hurricane. (expressively)

Inventive or inventively? Peter arranged the materials he collected in an _____ way to make an image of a tree. (inventive)
• Ask students to turn to Worksheet 8.2 and complete it as a teacher-guided activity. After completing the first puzzle together, have students complete the second puzzle independently.

Remediation and Enrichment 30 minutes

Remediate and Enrich Student Knowledge

Note to Teacher

This block of time is set aside for you to provide remediation to students who showed areas of need on the Mid-Year Assessment. For students who do not need remediation, you may use this block of time for enrichment.

The following resources will be of great help during this instructional period:

Remediation

• Information found in the Pausing Point
  • The Pausing Point in this Teacher Guide lists specific grammar and morphology skills and the lessons during which they were first taught in Grade 3, followed by the Pausing Point worksheet numbers.

• The Assessment and Remediation Guide
  • You may choose to use this to remediate areas of letter-sound correspondences as needed.

• Readers from Units 1–5
  • You may choose to work with students in small groups to address areas of need such as vocabulary and comprehension.

Enrichment

• Extension Activities from Units 1–5
  • You may choose to have students complete extension activities from previous units.

• Writing Prompts from Units 1–5
  • You may choose to have students respond to writing prompts from previous units.
• Additional Chapters and Worksheets from Units 1–5
  • You may choose to have students read additional chapters and complete accompanying worksheets from previous units.

• Reader’s Chair
  • You may choose to have students do this in small groups or with partners using any of the Readers from previous units.

• More Classic Tales and Worksheets
  • You may choose to have students read selections from More Classic Tales and complete the accompanying worksheets.

Take-Home Material

“The Death of Balder”

Have students take home Worksheet 8.3 to read to a family member.
Lesson 9

Objectives

The following language arts objectives are addressed in this lesson. Objectives aligning with the Common Core State Standards are noted with the corresponding standard in parentheses. Refer to the Alignment Chart for additional standards addressed in all lessons in this unit.

- Ask and answer questions (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how), orally or in writing, requiring literal recall and understanding of the details of “Loki’s Punishment” by explicitly referring to the text (RL.3.1)
- Recount stories read independently, including myths; determine the central message and explain how it is conveyed through key details in the text (RL.3.2)
- Describe characters in a “Loki’s Punishment” (e.g., traits, motivations) and explain how their actions contribute to the sequence of events (RL.3.3)
- Explain how specific aspects of the illustrations in “Loki’s Punishment” contribute to what is conveyed by the words of the story (e.g. create mood, emphasize aspects of a character or setting) (RL.3.7)
- Compare and contrast the characters, settings, and plots of stories read independently from different chapters of the same reader (RL.3.9)
- Determine the meaning of general academic words and domain-specific words and phrases relevant to Loki in “Loki’s Punishment” (RI.3.4)
- Describe images, orally or in writing, and how they contribute to what is conveyed by the words in “Loki’s Punishment” (RI.3.7)
- Independently read “Loki’s Punishment” with purpose and understanding (RF.3.4a)
- Use linking words, conjunctions, and phrases (e.g., because) to connect ideas within categories of information (W.3.2c)
- Use adjectives and explain their function in sentences (L.3.1a)
- Use adverbs and explain their function in sentences (L.3.1a)
- Use coordinating and subordinating conjunctions (e.g., because) (L.3.1h)
- Produce compound sentences (L.3.1i)
- Produce complex sentences (L.3.1i)
- Use a glossary to determine or clarify the precise meaning of key words and phrases (L.3.4d)
- Change some story events and provide a different story ending in writing

Guided Reading Supports and Purpose for Reading

- Review with students all that happened to Balder and how Loki was involved. You may choose to use the fiction chart in your discussion.
- Remind students that as they are reading, if they do not recall the meaning of a word, they can always look it up in the glossary.

Pages 74–77

- Follow your established procedures to display the image for this chapter and preview the Vocabulary Cards for patience, vow, serpent, wound, writhe, and agony. Note for students that the words vowed and writhed are used in this chapter.
- Ask students to read pages 74–77 to themselves to find out what Loki did to hide after Balder’s death.
- When students have finished reading, restate the question and ask students to answer. (He disguised himself as a salmon and swam in the rivers.)
- Ask, “How did the gods catch Loki?” (Loki kept jumping out of nets but finally Thor caught him with his bare hands.)
- Then, ask, “What did the gods do with Loki?” (They took him to a cavern deep underground, chained him to the rocks, and fastened a serpent above him so its poison dripped on him.)
- Direct students’ attention to the images and captions on pages 75 and 77.

Pages 78–81

- Follow your established procedures to preview the Vocabulary Cards for prophecy, triumph, and fate. Note for students that the word prophecies is used in this chapter.
- Ask students to read pages 78–81 to themselves to find the answer to the question: “How did Siguna help soothe Loki?”
- When students have finished reading, restate the question and ask students to answer. (As she caught the poison in a cup, she reminded Loki of the prophecies about the fall of the gods.)
- Direct students’ attention to the images and captions on pages 79 and 81.
Wrap-up

- Have students help you fill in the fiction chart for this chapter. Use details from the chapter and images. Compare and contrast with previously read chapters. You may wish to use the following questions to generate student ideas:

  Characters: Who are the main characters in this chapter?
  Setting: Where do the events in this chapter take place?

Grammar

Build Sentences with the Conjunction because

- Read the following sentence to students:

> The furry, black cat scampered quickly up the winding staircase early in the morning because she was hungry.

- Ask students if they think the sentence is interesting and informative and why. (The sentence has adjectives, adverbs, and the conjunction because, which adds another simple sentence, all of which help make it interesting and informative.)

- Tell students that in writing, sentences should be long enough to be interesting to readers. Interesting and informative sentences also include descriptive words and phrases.
• Remind students they have practiced writing, or building, more interesting sentences by including adjectives, adverbs, and other interesting words in sentences.

• Remind students that adjectives describe nouns and adverbs describe verbs.

• Write the following sentence on chart paper or the board, asking students to read the sentence aloud:

  The child danced.

• Tell students that while this sentence is a complete sentence, it is not a very interesting sentence and does not provide much information.

• Continue by saying that you will show students how they can make a more interesting sentence by adding adjectives and adverbs.

• One way to make the sentence more interesting would be to add an adjective or two to describe the child. Ask students to brainstorm words that could be used to describe the child, prompting them to think of words to answer the question, “What did the child look or sound like?” Write down the suggested adjectives in a list on the board or chart paper. (Examples could be: graceful, lovely, talented, athletic)

• Another way to improve this sentence would be to add adverbs to describe the verb. Ask students to brainstorm words that could be used to answer the question. “How did the child dance?” Write these adverbs in a separate list. (Examples could be: nonstop, softly, happily)

• Now, ask students to brainstorm words that could be used to answer the question, “When did the child dance?” Write these adverbs and/or phrases in a separate list. (Examples could be: all morning, for days and days, always)

• Now, ask students to brainstorm words that could be used to answer the question, “Where did the child dance?” Write these adverbs and/or phrases in a separate list. (Examples could be: on stage, at school, in the park)

• Finally, ask students to brainstorm words that could be used to answer the question, “Why did the child dance?” (Examples could be: because she was happy, joyful, thrilled)
• Remind students of cause and effect and the usage of the conjunction because. (The cause is the event that happens first in time and the effect is the event that happens second in time. The conjunction because precedes the cause.) Write their ideas for how to use because in a separate list.

• Remind students that a simple sentence is needed to show the cause of an event. (Examples could be: she was very happy, she felt wonderful, something great had happened) Examples of more interesting sentences could be:

  • The happy, talented child danced nonstop because she was very thrilled.
  • The lovely child danced on stage all morning because something great had just happened.
  • The athletic child danced for days and days because she was feeling joyful.

• Ask students to turn to Worksheet 9.2, explaining that they are to use the same process to make more interesting sentences by adding adjectives, adverbs, and the conjunction because on the worksheet.

Advance Preparation

Make sure to erase the spelling table from the board and/or turn the table over so that students cannot refer to it during the assessment.
Spelling Assessment

- Have students turn to Worksheet 10.1 for the spelling assessment.
- If you would like for students to have pens, this is the time to pass them out.
- Tell students that for this assessment, they will write their words under the header to which they belong. For example, if you call out the word send, they would write that word under the header ‘s’ > /s/.
- Tell students that should a spelling word fit under more than one header, they should only write the word under one.
- Tell students that they may not have to use all the lines under each header.
- Using the chart below, call out the word using the following format: say the word, use it in a sentence, and say the word once more.

- After you have called out all of the words including the Challenge Words and the Content Word, go back through the list slowly, reading each word just once more.
- Ask students to write the following sentences as you dictate them:
1. Thor said, “Give me my hammer.”
2. “I have my hair now,” said Sif.

• After students have finished, collect pens, if used.
• Follow your established procedures to correct the spelling words.

Note to Teacher

At a later time today, you may find it helpful to use the template provided at the end of this lesson to analyze students’ mistakes. This will help you to understand any patterns that are beginning to develop, or that are persistent among individual students.

Spelling Analysis Directions

Unit 6, Lesson 10

• Students are likely to make the following errors:
  • For ‘s’, students may write ‘c’, ‘ss’, ‘ce’, ‘se’, ‘st’, or ‘sc’
  • For ‘c’, students may write ‘s’, ‘ss’, ‘ce’, ‘se’, ‘st’, or ‘sc’
  • For ‘ss’, students may write ‘s’, ‘c’, ‘ce’, ‘se’, ‘st’, or ‘sc’
  • For ‘ce’, students may write ‘s’, ‘c’, ‘ss’, ‘se’, ‘st’, or ‘sc’
  • For ‘se’, students may write ‘s’, ‘c’, ‘ss’, ‘ce’, ‘st’, or ‘sc’
  • For ‘st’, students may write ‘s’, ‘c’, ‘ss’, ‘ce’, ‘se’, or ‘sc’
  • For ‘sc’ students may write ‘s’, ‘c’, ‘ss’, ‘ce’, ‘se’, or ‘st’
• While any of the above student-error scenarios may occur, you should still be aware that misspellings may be due to many other factors. You may find it helpful to record the actual spelling errors that the student makes in the analysis chart. For example:
  • Is the student consistently making errors on specific vowels? Which ones?
  • Is the student consistently making errors on double consonants?
  • Is the student consistently making errors at the end of the words?
  • Is the student consistently making errors on particular beginning consonants?
  • Did the student write words for each feature correctly?
  • Also, examine the dictated sentences for errors in capitalization and punctuation.
We have provided additional worksheets to aid you in remediating students in areas of weakness. We strongly recommend that you do not merely rely on the worksheets to reteach the concepts but rather take time to review with students those skills not mastered. We have included the unit and lesson numbers where the skills were first taught for your convenience. Please do look back at prior Teacher Guides for reminders of how lessons were taught. Remember to refer to the Assessment and Remediation Guide for guidance in remediating weaknesses in decoding skills.

Reading Time

Introducing the Comic Book Organizer

In an effort to provide additional optional activities, we have created the Comic Book Organizer. As students read or reread the chapters in this Reader, you may choose to guide them through drawing and labeling pictures in the Comic Book Organizer using the directions in this Pausing Point. This organizer is included as an additional way for students to keep track of characters, settings, plots, and other fictional features of the selections. There are comic book pages that align with each chapter. After students fill in the Comic Book Organizer pages, you may choose to assist students in assembling all the pages, including a cover page, to create a finished comic book.

- Ask students to turn to PP46. Tell students that this will be the cover for the Comic Book Organizer that they may complete during this unit. The pages of the organizer that follow the cover page will help them remember details about what they read in the myths.
- Ask students to look over the comic book pages.
- Tell students that as they read or reread the chapters in this unit about Norse myths, you will help them fill in the organizer. The organizer will help them remember the who, what, when, where, and why of the myths they read.
- Tell them that when they have read all the myths, they will complete the organizer by assembling the pages and adding the cover page.
Guided Directions for the Comic Book Organizer

Chapter 1: “Sif’s Golden Hair”

• Worksheet PP47

• Have students turn to page 10 in the Reader.

• Tell students that in box 1, they should sketch Odin sitting at the table and the two ravens with him. Students should then label the sketches of Odin, Thought, and Memory. Students may want to reread page 10 in the Reader. Have students create a speech bubble and insert a line or two of text for the main character of the sketch.

• Ask students to turn to page 12. Then, ask students to sketch Thor in box 2 and label the sketch with his name. Students may want to reread page 12. Have students insert a speech bubble.

• Next, ask students to turn to page 14. Students may want to reread page 14. Students should then sketch and label Sif with her veil and shorn head in box 3. Have students insert a speech bubble.

• Last, ask students to turn to page 16. Students may want to reread page 16. Students should then sketch Loki in box 4. Have students insert a speech bubble.

Chapter 2: “Loki and the Dwarves”

• Worksheet PP48

Simply find the number of correct answers the student produced along the top of the chart and the number of total questions on the worksheet or activity along the left side. Then find the cell where the column and the row converge. This indicates the Tens score. By using the Tens Conversion Chart, you can easily convert any raw score, from 0 to 20, into a Tens score.

Please note that the Tens Conversion Chart was created to be used with assessments that have a defined number of items (such as written assessments). However, teachers are encouraged to use the Tens system to record informal observations as well. Observational Tens scores are based on your observations during class. It is suggested that you use the following basic rubric for recording observational Tens scores.

Writing Prompts

Unit 6:
1. Write a paragraph outlining Loki’s behavior in the reader and whether it was appropriate or not.
2. Devise a different way for Thor to retrieve his hammer from Thrym.
3. Formulate a plan for all the characters in the reader to live together peacefully.
4. Devise a plan for someone to “save the day” so Balder does not die.
5. Invent new machines that the dwarves could build that would change the outcome of one of the chapters in the reader.
6. Writing as Odin, give instructions for Loki to change his ways.

Either fiction or nonfiction:
1. Summarize the story or chapter you read in three to five sentences.
2. After reading this story or chapter, I wonder...
3. Name three things you liked about the story or chapter.
4. Make a timeline of three to five events in your reading today.
5. Pretend you are a TV reporter who has to interview the main character or person in the story or chapter you read, and write down five questions you would ask.
6. Make a prediction about what will happen next in the story or chapter you just read. Explain why you think this will happen.
7. Pretend you are the main character or a person in the story or chapter you read today and write a diary entry for that person.
8. Tell about something in the story or chapter you read today that is similar to something you have already read.
9. Draw a Venn diagram to show what is alike and/or different between two characters or people in the story or chapter you read.
10. How does the title fit the story or chapter? Suggest another title.
11. Write down three new words you learned while reading and tell what they mean. Use each word in a new sentence.
12. Name three questions you would ask the author of the story or chapter.

Fiction:
1. Tell about the setting.
2. Tell about the plot.
3. Tell about your favorite character. Write three reasons why you chose that character.
4. Which character is your least favorite? Write three reasons why you chose that character.
5. Give examples of personification from the story.
6. Draw a line down the center of your paper. On one side write the title of your favorite story. On the other side write the title of whatever you read today. Compare and contrast the main characters, the settings, and the plots.
7. Write a different ending for the story.
8. If you could be any character in the story or chapter you read today, who would you be? Give three reasons why.
9. Invent a conversation or dialogue between two characters or people in the story or chapter that you read. Write what each character says and don’t forget to use quotation marks.
10. Describe a character, setting, or plot that surprised you. Explain what it was and why it surprised you.
11. Tell about a problem that someone in the story or chapter had and what he or she did about it.

Nonfiction:
1. Describe something that you learned from what you read today.
2. Write at least three questions you have after reading the chapter about the topic in the chapter.

The Surprise Party

Mother and I had planned and prepared all day, making sure that everything was ready for a special supper because it was Grandma's birthday today. Grandma was coming for supper because she always came for supper on Sundays and it was Sunday. What she didn't know was that it was going to be a special Sunday because Mother and I had kept the party a big secret! I can't wait to see the look on her face when she arrives and we all shout, "Surprise!" Because I love her so very much, seeing her happy will make my day! I just know this will be the best Sunday ever because Grandma will be surprised and will open her presents. Because she is fifty years old today, I wrapped up fifty small pictures I had drawn for her, one for each year she has been alive!

Practice Conjunctions

Part 1: Read the following story and follow your teacher’s instructions.

Paula’s Morning

“Paula! Paula!” said Ms. Jones. “Get up!” Paula looked at the clock and jumped out of bed. It was 6:30 and Paula knew she was very late. She looked out the window. None of the other children were waiting at the bus stop. “Oh no! I must have missed my bus” sighed Paula.

Paula quickly showered, brushed her teeth, packed her backpack, and raced downstairs. Ms. Jones was waiting to drive her to school.

When Paula arrived at school, classes had already started. That’s when she realized her mistake was growing. Not only was she late for school, she had missed breakfast. Sadly, she hurried to her classroom. She hoped Ms. Jones wouldn’t be angry with her.

She quietly entered the classroom and Ms. Jones gave her a big smile and said, “Oh, Paula! We’re so glad you’re here today!” Paula knew it was going to be a good day after all.

Part 2: For each pair of sentences below, decide which part you need to write the conjunction because and then, write it on the appropriate blank. Use the word because in each pair just one time. Draw an X in the blank that doesn’t need the word because. Remember to capitalize the first word in a sentence.

1. Because light and sound are such interesting topics to learn about _X_ I can’t wait to come to school to learn more!
   2. X We can’t go outside to play today _W_ because it is raining too hard.
   3. Because the mirror in my bathroom has a big crack in it _X_ the reflection of my face looks funny.
   4. X_ It’s very cold in my room today _W_ because the heater is broken.
   5. X_ I couldn’t play soccer this season _W_ because I broke my ankle and am wearing a cast.

3. What does the word harm mean in this sentence?

He knew there was almost nothing that could harm Balder.

A. want
B. hurt
C. help
D. warn

8.2 Suffix Puzzles

Choose the best word to fit in the blank from the choices below. Write the word in the blank.

Puzzle #1

Learning about Viking myths is interesting. I am so appreciative that our teacher is guiding us through these stories. Odin had tried to actively help Loki in the past, but Loki finally went too far. He cut off Sif’s hair. Odin sent Loki to ask the dwarves to make more golden hair for Sif. The dwarves were very creative, and because Loki came up with an inventive way to flatter the dwarves, they made other gifts for Loki to take to the gods to make up for his bad deed.

When Thor’s hammer was stolen, the gods convinced Thor to work cooperatively with Loki to get the hammer back. Their plan involved disguises and a fake wedding. When Thrym the giant brought the hammer out at the wedding feast, Thor expressively answered Thrym’s question and burst out of his disguise, showing how angry he was that the hammer had been stolen. Thor went back to Asgard and celebrated with the gods that he had his hammer back.

Puzzle #2

I love going to the state fair. People find creative ways to make different kinds of pies, jams, and other food. There are so many animals with their owner’s actively showing them. The decorative ribbons are placed on items entered into a variety of contests. The rides are so much fun too! It takes so many people working cooperatively to make the fair run smoothly.
Loki's Punishment

1. Why did the gods vow to hunt Loki down and punish him?

   The gods vowed to hunt Loki down and punish him because he had done so much evil the gods had lost patience with him.

2. Why do you think Odin had defended Loki for so long?

   Answers may vary.

3. Describe the setting where the gods took Loki to punish him and tell why that setting is important to the chapter.

   The cavern was deep underground. The gods strapped a poisonous serpent to the roof so its poison could drip on Loki. Answers may vary for why setting is important.

4. Put these statements in the correct order to show what happened in the chapter:

   4. Loki’s wife Siguna came to help Loki.
   2. Loki disguises himself as a salmon.
   6. Siguna says, “For the moment, we are beaten.”
   1. The gods lost all patience with Loki.
   3. Thor captured Loki.
   5. Siguna caught the drops of poison in a cup.

5. Write a different ending in which Loki escapes at the end of the chapter.

   Answers may vary.
Subjects and Predicates

Sentences have two parts:

- the subject, which tells who or what the sentence is about
- the predicate, which tells what the subject is or does

Draw a vertical line separating the subject and predicate.

1. Their large eyes hunt for tasty insects.
2. Chris made the lunch for the birthday party.
3. Leah planned the tricky experiment.
4. My relatives are visiting for the weekend.
5. The teacher helps her students all day.
6. An ivy plant makes a nice gift.
7. Dad told his daughter thank you.
8. The members of the club knew the Smiths well.
9. The president begins the meeting with a funny story.
10. That girl calls her mother each hour.

Practice Parts of Speech, Subjects and Predicates

Remind:

- Nouns = words that name a person, place, or thing
- Common nouns = words that name in general terms, not capitalized
- Proper nouns = words that name in specific terms, capitalized
- Verbs = words that show action
- Adjectives = words that describe nouns

A complete sentence has a subject and a predicate. The subject (noun) tells who or what the sentence is about. The predicate (verb) tells what the subject is doing.

Draw a vertical line separating the subject and predicate. Circle the nouns. Draw a wiggly line under the verbs, and draw a box around the adjectives. Draw an arrow from the adjective to the noun it describes.

1. Dancers are lovely and graceful.
2. Sophia's yard is small and fenced.
3. Apple trees were once small, brown seeds.
4. Penguins like cold climates.
5. I read the enjoyable story about kind pirates.
6. The author read the last chapter from her new book.
7. Some tired killer whales stopped the nearest fake.
8. Today, people watch huge whales on television.
9. The warm bread and sweet cheeks tasted great.
10. The green fence of the weather garden looked like a thorny fence.

Subjects and Predicates

Sentences have two parts:

- the subject, which tells who or what the sentence is about
- the predicate, which tells what the subject is or does

Draw a vertical line separating the subject and predicate.

1. Their large eyes hunt for tasty insects.
2. Chris made the lunch for the birthday party.
3. Leah planned the tricky experiment.
4. My relatives are visiting for the weekend.
5. The teacher helps her students all day.
6. An ivy plant makes a nice gift.
7. Dad told his daughter thank you.
8. The members of the club knew the Smiths well.
9. The president begins the meeting with a funny story.
10. That girl calls her mother each hour.
Complete Sentences vs. Fragments

Reminder:

- A complete sentence is a group of words that is a complete thought.
- A complete sentence has a subject and a predicate. The subject (noun) tells who or what the sentence is about. The predicate (verb) tells what the subject is doing.
- A fragment is a group of words that is not a complete thought.
- A fragment does not have a subject and a predicate. It may have one or the other, a subject or a predicate.

If the group of words is a complete sentence, write “yes” and add the correct punctuation to show that it is a sentence. If the group of words is a fragment, write “no”. On the blanks on the back, change the fragments into complete sentences by adding either a subject or predicate, depending on which is missing.

Reminder:

- A complete sentence is a group of words that is a complete thought.
- A complete sentence has a subject and a predicate. The subject (noun) tells who or what the sentence is about. The predicate (verb) tells what the subject is doing.
- A fragment is a group of words that is not a complete thought.
- A fragment does not have a subject and a predicate. It may have one or the other, a subject or a predicate.

If the sentence is complete:

- circle “complete”
- add the correct end punctuation

If the sentence is incomplete:

- circle “incomplete”
- circle which part of the sentence is missing, the subject or the predicate

Write the letter "S" over the subject and the letter "P" over the predicate in each simple sentence. Draw a line to separate the subject and predicate in each simple sentence. Then, join the two simple sentences with a conjunction, if necessary, to make a compound sentence. Draw two lines under the word and a comma to show that it is a conjunction.

Example: My brother takes piano lessons. I take guitar lessons.
   My brother takes piano lessons, and I take guitar lessons.
   S  P
   S  P

5. We went to the park. I collected leaves.
   We went to the park and I collected leaves.

Identify Topic and Concluding Sentences

Reminder:

• A paragraph is a set of sentences on the same topic.
• A topic sentence is one sentence, usually the first, which tells the main idea or what the paragraph is mostly about.
• A concluding sentence is one sentence, always the last, which wraps up the paragraph. It does not introduce new information. Often, it restates the topic sentence.

Draw a box around the topic sentence of each paragraph. Draw a circle around the concluding sentence.

Food stores are organized in ways that make lots of sense. Around the outside walls of the store are the areas that have counters where people work to prepare food and make things for shoppers to buy. You will find the bakery where the bakers are cooking up wonderful smelling cookies and cakes. Next, workers are making yummy sandwiches and serving salads to shoppers. There is even a person arranging lovely flowers into vases. On the inside rows of the store are the cans and boxes of foods for people to buy. It is so smart the way food stores are laid out.

Puzzles are my very favorite toy to play with when I have nothing else to do. I love the shapes and colors of the pieces and the pictures they make when the puzzle is finished. It is so much fun to connect all of the outside pieces first and then try to fill in the middle. Watching the puzzle picture appear from the pieces as I put the puzzle together is a fun sort of magic. Puzzles fill up my time in very neat ways.
Kittens are the funniest and cutest little animals on earth. I enjoy watching them scamper about, chasing things only they can see. They love to reach out to grab a ball or a piece of yarn and really have fun when their claws catch them. Their little eyes dart from this to that, noticing all that moves around them. I could watch a kitten play for hours and just laugh.

When Robin comes to babysit me, I am so thrilled. She reads stories to me and uses so many funny voices when she reads. She likes to play board games with me and sometimes I think she even lets me win. She is such a kind person who is a joy to be around. My brother’s name is Jack. I hope Robin can come again soon to take care of me.

Irrelevant Sentences in Paragraphs

Reminder:
• An irrelevant sentence is one that does not relate to the topic sentence in a paragraph.

Each paragraph has a topic sentence, followed by additional sentences. However, there is a sentence that does not relate to the topic sentence. Draw a box around the topic sentence of each paragraph. Cross out the irrelevant sentence in the paragraph. Draw a circle around the concluding sentence.

Apple pie is my favorite dessert. I love the flavor of the cinnamon and the warm apples. I especially love to add a big scoop of icy cold vanilla ice cream on the side. Peach pie is made of peaches. If we had apple pie every night for dessert, I would be a happy person.

Irrelevant Sentences

Reminder:
• An irrelevant sentence is one that does not relate to the topic sentence in a paragraph.

For each paragraph, draw a box around the topic sentence and cross out the sentence that does not stay on the topic. Circle the concluding sentence.

Fruit comes in all shapes and colors. Some fruits are red and round like apples. Some are yellow and long like bananas. I like playing in the park during the summer. Other fruits, like grapes, are small, green, and sweet. The bright colors of fruits make me want to eat them up!

Keeping my desk neat at school really helps me to do well. My reader and papers are stacked up in piles and my pencils and crayons are in my pencil box. I like recess the best when I can go out and play on the playground. My 3-ring binder is always where it should be in my desk. When I need to find something in my desk quickly, it is easy when everything is in its place.
Paragraph #1:

1. Checking out a book that doesn’t interest me is not much fun so it’s worth it to look closely.

2. The captions under the pictures can also help me to discover what the book is about.

3. Finally, reading the first paragraph or two can help me decide if the book is worth reading.

4. First I like to read the introduction to the book on the inside front cover.

Now add a title to your paragraph: Answers may vary.

Paragraph #2:

3. Chocolate chips are then added to the batter.

4. Before you begin, turn on the oven to the correct temperature.

5. When the batter is ready, place teaspoonfuls on a cookie sheet.

6. Chocolate chip cookies right out of the oven are the best ever!

7. Put the filled baking sheet in the oven and set the timer.

8. Next, take the cookies off the cookie sheet.

9. Enjoy eating your warm, gooey cookies!

Now add a title to your paragraph: Answers may vary.

Painting a landscape scene is difficult but very rewarding. First, you need to choose a setting to paint. Then, you should look carefully at the landscape, noticing the trees, hills, ponds, birds, flowers, and whatever else is a part of your setting. It is time to paint slowly and not try to complete everything at once. As you paint more and more parts of your setting, you will see the painting come to life. When you have finished, you will have a beautiful landscape scene that you could frame either hang on your wall or give away as a thoughtful gift. Painting a landscape is a wonderful activity.

Past, Present, and Future Tenses

Reminder:
- The present tense of a verb tells what the subject is doing right now.
- The past tense of a verb tells what the subject already did.
- The future tense of a verb tells what the subject will do later.

Draw a wiggly line under the verbs in each sentence. Remember, future tense has the word _will_ preceding the verb. Then, write the words present, past, or future on the line after the sentence.

1. We learned about the classification of animals earlier this year. __past____
2. The princess will marry the prince at the end of the fable. __future____
3. The students studied reading after grammar. __past____
