

Effective and Safe Classroom Activities

Online Resources

Conducting safe classroom demonstrations and activities is essential to successful elementary science education. The following resources provide Core Knowledge's recommendations for developing effective science classroom activities.

These resources, included at the back of the Teacher Guide on pages 213–217, consist of the following:

- Classroom Safety for Activities and Demonstrations
- Strategies for Acquiring Materials
- Advance Preparation for Activities and Demonstrations
- What to Do When Activities Don't Give Expected Results

These resources may also be accessed within the CKSci Online Resources Guide for this unit:

MATERIALS AND EQUIPMENT

The unit, like all hands-on science, requires a large variety of materials to support various ways of learning (including doing, discussing, listening, watching, reading, and writing). Prepare in advance by collecting the materials and equipment needed for all the demonstrations and hands-on investigations.

- Roll paper, poster board, or a bulletin board should be dedicated at the beginning of the unit to serve as a question board to cumulatively document and return to student questions. The question board is referred to in the materials for lesson segments in which it is used but is not repeated in the materials listed here.
- Internet access and the means to project images/videos for whole-class viewing is also required in many lesson segments but is not repeated below.
- Additional materials may be required for suggested but optional support, challenge, and extension activities.
