

Teacher Prompts

3. "Mouth still closed."

4. (Teachers will need to teach students what the "signal" is.)

Answering a Question

1. Listen to the question; mouth closed.
2. Think of the answer.
3. Raise your hand and look at the teacher.
4. Wait for the teacher's signal.
5. Answer the question.

Core Knowledge®

Core Knowledge Social Skills

Lyrics of “Answering a Question” from Core Knowledge Social Skills CD:

I’m listening to the question with my mouth
closed

‘Cause if I’m talking, I won’t hear how it goes.

I’m listening to the question with my mouth
closed—

Yodaleedalodaodallylay!

I’m thinking about the question in my head.

I think I know it and it hasn’t been said.

I’m thinking about the question in my head—

Yodaleedalodaodallylay!

I’m going to raise my hand and look at the teacher.

This is grand. This is great, great, great!

I’m going to raise my hand and look at the teacher and wait.....wait, wait, wait, (deep breath) and wait!

“Cathy?”

I’m answering the question. Now it’s my turn.

There’re a lot of things that I have learned.

I’m answering the question, Now it’s my turn—

Yodaleedalodaodallylay!