Poetry

Activity Book

This Activity Book contains Activity Pages that accompany the lessons from the Unit 8 Teacher Guide. The Activity Pages are organized and numbered according to the lesson number and the order in which they are used within the lesson. For example, if there are two Activity Pages for Lesson 4, the first will be numbered 4.1, and the second 4.2. The Activity Book is a student component, which means each student should have an Activity Book.
Our class will begin a poetry unit in language arts in which students will read a variety of selections that cross time, history, gender, and culture. Students will read works from classical poets such as William Shakespeare, Lord Byron, William Wordsworth, Robert Frost, Rudyard Kipling, and Emily Dickinson. Students will also read more contemporary works by Maya Angelou, Langston Hughes, James Weldon Johnson, and Paul Laurence Dunbar.

The selected poetry for the unit will allow students to study the varying forms of poetry as well as sound devices, structural elements, diction, figurative language, and theme. As a form of expression, poetry allows readers to think about topics in creative and unusual ways, stimulating critical thought without the pressure of a right or correct interpretation. Poetry, perhaps more than any other genre, invites students to play with the power of language as a form of expression, highlighting the connections between form and meaning.

This unit will give us the opportunity to discuss the diverse cultural backgrounds represented in our classroom, our community, and our country. Through various oral and written activities, students will explore issues related to gender and culture as presented in the selected poems. Students will have several assignments in which they compare and contrast poetic structures, devices, and themes.
In addition, the topic of cultural and gender oppression addressed in several of the poems are timely ones, as they are frequently topics of public discourse. Through this unit, students will have an opportunity to explore these issues through the voices of those who have experienced them.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.
Types of Conflict

With your student group, fill in your assigned column with examples of that type of conflict from television, movies, books, or real life. Be prepared to present your ideas to the class.

As groups assigned to other columns share their ideas with the class, complete those columns, as well.

Conflict: opposing actions between people or forces

Practice Using Intensive Pronouns

Read the stanzas from the poem below. Identify and underline three lines with errors in intensive pronouns. Then, rewrite the underlined lines correctly on the lines below.

I wonder why he continues to stop
when she itself could easily go.
It stands to reason he goes to the shop
because she's never quick to show.
Now he hisself will wait for hours
instead of driving ahead.
And she himself could’ve gotten the flowers
instead of lying in bed.
Write a two- to four-line stanza of a poem, correctly using one or more of the intensive pronouns from the box.

| itself | herself | himself | ourselves | themselves |
Practice Frequently Confused Words: good/well; like/as

Read the stanzas from the poem below. Identify and underline two lines with errors in frequently confused words. Then, rewrite the underlined lines correctly on the lines below.

What are we searching for most in our lives?
Are we traveling good on our path?
Are we seeking out the gold in our thoughts,
or are we honing our steel blades of wrath?
Are we wanting more but giving less,
until our balance has sunk as a stone?
Or are we pushing our wagons uphill on our road,
offering others a lift as we go?
Write a two- to four-line stanza of a poem, correctly using two or more of the frequently confused words from the box.

“A Psalm of Life”
By Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

What The Heart Of The Young Man Said To The Psalmist.

Tell me not, in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream!
For the soul is dead that slumbers,
And things are not what they seem.

Life is real! Life is earnest!
And the grave is not its goal;
Dust thou art, to dust returnest,
Was not spoken of the soul.
Not enjoyment, and not sorrow,
   Is our destined end or way;
But to act, that each to-morrow
   Find us farther than to-day.

Art is long, and Time is fleeting,
   And our hearts, though stout and brave,
Still, like muffled drums, are beating
   Funeral marches to the grave.

In the world’s broad field of battle,
   In the bivouac of Life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle!
   Be a hero in the strife!

Trust no Future, howe’er pleasant!
   Let the dead Past bury its dead!
Act,— act in the living Present!
   Heart within, and God o’erhead!

Lives of great men all remind us
   We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
   Footprints on the sands of time;

Footprints, that perhaps another,
   Sailing o’er life’s solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
   Seeing, shall take heart again.

Let us, then, be up and doing,
   With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
   Learn to labor and to wait.
